The Metaphysics of Death John Martin Fischer, 1993 This collection of seventeen essays deals with the metaphysical as opposed to the moral issues pertaining to death For example the authors investigate among other things the issue of what makes death a bad thing for an individual if indeed death is a bad thing This issue is more basic and abstract than such moral questions as the particular conditions under which euthanasia is justified if it is ever justified Though there are important connections between the more abstract questions addressed in this book and many contemporary moral issues such as euthanasia suicide and abortion the primary focus of this book is on metaphysical issues concerning the nature of death What is the nature of the harm or bad involved in death If it is not pain what is it and how can it be bad Who is the subject of the harm or bad if the person is no longer alive how can he be the subject of the bad An if he is not the subject who is Can one have harm with no subject When does the harm take place Can a harm take place after its subject ceases to exist If death harms a person can the harm take place before the death occurs If death can be a bad thing would immortality be a desirable alternative This family of questions helps to frame the puzzle of why and how death is bad Other subjects addressed include the Epicurean view that death is not a misfortune for the person who dies the nature of misfortune and benefit the meaningfulness and value of life and the distinction between the life of a person and the life of a living creature who is not a person There is an extensive bibliography that includes science fiction treatments of death and immortality Journeying The Tightrope Edna Maher, Life, Death, and Meaning David Benatar, 2010-01-16 Do our lives have meaning Should we create more people Is death bad Should we commit suicide Would it be better to be immortal Should we be optimistic or pessimistic Since Life Death and Meaning Key Philosophical Readings on the Big Questions first appeared David Benatar's distinctive anthology designed to introduce students to the key existential questions of philosophy has won a devoted following among users in a variety of upper level and even introductory courses While many philosophers in the continental tradition those known as existentialists have engaged these issues at length and often with great popular appeal English speaking philosophers have had relatively little to say on these important questions Yet the methodology they bring to philosophical questions can and occasionally has been applied usefully to existential questions This volume draws together a representative sample of primarily English speaking philosophers reflections on life's big questions divided into six sections covering 1 the meaning of life 2 creating people 3 death 4 suicide 5 immortality and 6 optimism and pessimism These key readings are supplemented with helpful introductions study questions and suggestions for further reading making the material accessible and interesting for students In short the book provides a singular introduction to the way that philosophy has dealt with the big questions of life that we are all tempted to ask

(Complete) Augustus John Cuthbert Hare,2020-09-28 IN 1727 the year of George the First s death Miss Grace Naylor of Hurstmonceaux though she was beloved charming and beautiful died very mysteriously in her twenty first year in the immense and weird old castle of which she had been the heiress She was affirmed to have been starved by her former governess who lived alone with her but the fact was never proved Her property passed to her first cousin Francis Hare son of her aunt Bethaia who forthwith assumed the name of Naylor The new owner of Hurstmonceaux was the only child of the first marriage of that Francis Hare who through the influence first of the Duke of Marlborough by whose side then a chaplain he had ridden on the battle fields of Blenheim and Ramilies and afterwards of his family connections the Pelhams and Walpoles rose to become one of the richest and most popular pluralists of his age Yet he had to be contented at last with the bishoprics of St Asaph and Chichester with each of which he held the Deanery of St Paul s the Archbishopric of Canterbury having twice just escaped him The Bishop s eldest son Francis was un facheux d tail de notre famille as the grandfather of Madame de

Maintenon said of his son He died after a life of the wildest dissipation without leaving any children by his wife Carlotta Alston who was his stepmother's sister So the property of Hurstmonceaux went to his half brother Robert son of the Bishop's second marriage with Mary Margaret Alston heiress of the Vatche in Buckinghamshire and of several other places besides Sir Robert Walpole had been the godfather of Robert Hare Naylor and presented him with a valuable sinecure office as a christening present and he further made the Bishop urge the Church as the profession in which father and godfather could best aid the boy's advancement Accordingly Robert took orders obtained a living and was made a Canon of Winchester While he was still very young his father had further secured his fortunes by marrying him to the heiress who lived nearest to his mother's property of the Vatche and by the beautiful Sarah Selman daughter of the owner of Chalfont St Peter's and sister of Mrs Lefevre he had two sons Francis and Robert and an only daughter Anna Maria afterwards Mrs Bulkeley In the zenith of her youth and loveliness however Sarah Hare died very suddenly from eating ices when overheated at a ball and soon afterwards Robert married a second wife the rich Henrietta Henckel who pulled down Hurstmonceaux Castle She did this because she was jealous of the sons of her predecessor and wished to build a large new house which she persuaded her husband to settle upon her own children who were numerous though only two daughters lived to any great age But she was justly punished for when Robert Hare died it was discovered that the great house which Wyatt had built for Mrs Hare and which is now known as Hurstmonceaux Place was erected upon entailed land so that the house stripped of furniture and the property shorn of its most valuable farms passed to Francis Hare Naylor son of Miss Selman Mrs Henckel Hare lived on to a great age and when the burden of her years came on her she repented of her avarice and injustice and coming back to Hurstmonceaux in childish senility would wander round and round the castle ruins in the early morning and late evening wringing her hands and saying Who could have done such a wicked thing oh who could have done such a wicked thing as to pull down this beautiful old place Then her daughters Caroline and Marianne walking beside her would say Oh dear mamma it was you who did it it was you yourself who did it you know and she would despairingly resume Oh no that is impossible it could not have been me I could not have done such a wicked thing it could not have been me that did it My cousin Marcus Hare had at Abbots Kerswell a picture of Mrs Henckel Hare which was always surrounded with crape bows
