

(viii) William Nicholas of Birmingham. William Cook and Andrew Nicholas, 1811. It made movements as well as dials. This particular dial has an unusual scalloped gold border to the chapter ring as well as very peculiar maps of the hemispheres. These show an early use of outside materials for the latitude. The indices in the corners represent the four seasons.

(ix) Pair of Liverpool, possibly John, 1814-16. This is a Fulton of Birmingham dial, 1813-19 showing very individualistic pointing in brilliant colours of the four seasons. Indices in the corners have very pale faces. The maps of the world have the Americas on the right-hand side.

(x) Harry of Bristol, probably John, 1775-1800. Here is another Fulton dial possibly from the same era as the Furr dial, but employing unusual scale figures in the four seasons. There is an early portrait of Wellington on the moon dial which is unusual. The Americas are on the left-hand hemisphere and the eclipse is shown the equator instead of below it as in the Furr dial. This means that different makers must have been used as the two dials differ in size.

(xi) Andrew of Newnham, Gloucestershire, is an unknown clock maker. This is a Walker and Hughes of Birmingham automatic dial c. 1812 where the background of the Garden of Eden is a separate mounted piece and only five's are moved. The corners are definitely Walker work with their respective diamond shapes. An inclusion figure was stuck on at the centre of each oval. There is one other known dial for the same dial maker using an inclusion figure, but neither dial maker seems to have used this decoration.

This is the only book dealing with antique British clocks with painted dials also known as japanned or white dials No prior knowledge is assumed in the reader and the book explains how even the beginner can very easily learn to assess the style age and quality and even the region of origin of any painted dial clock The development of dial and case style is explained in non technical detail with 44 colour plates and 275 black and white illustrations In particular regional trends and tastes in cases are identified and explained in detail a feature of no other book Considerable attention is given to show how the trade worked in the past including how the clockmaker and the customer selected their dials The book is written in a manner which can easily be followed by the beginner or the inexperienced owner of a clock but the expert will find much here that is new including a fully detailed list of every recorded dialmaker essential for cross checking the age of any clock Required reading for the owner of any painted dial clock as well as collectors and dealers Antique Clock Dials, Hands, and Corner Pieces from Long Case and Lantern Clocks Anon,2011-01 William W.
