Copyright Office,1968 Cinemas and cinemagoing in wartime Britain, 1939-45 Richard Farmer,2016-06-24 In this groundbreaking book Richard Farmer provides a social and cultural history of cinemas and cinemagoing in Britain between 1939 and 1945 and explores the impact that the war had on the places in which British people watched films Movie-Made Appalachia John C. Inscoe,2020-11-24 While Hollywood deserves its reputation for much maligned portrayals of southern highlanders on screen the film industry also deserves credit for a long standing tradition of more serious and meaningful depictions of Appalachia s people Surveying some two dozen films and the literary and historical sources from which they were adapted John C Inscoe argues that in the American imagination Appalachia has long represented far more than deprived and depraved hillbillies Rather the films he highlights serve as effective conduits into the region s past some grounded firmly in documented realities and life stories others only loosely so In either case they deserve more credit than they have received for creating sympathetic and often complex characters who interact within families households and communities amidst a wide array of historical contingencies They provide credible and informative narratives that respect the specifics of the times and places in which they are set Having used many of these movies as teaching tools in college classrooms Inscoe demonstrates the cumulative effect of analyzing them in terms of shared themes and topics to convey far more generous insights into Appalachia and its history than one would have expected to emerge from southern California s dream factory Carol Reed Peter William Evans,2019-01-04 Carol Reed is one of the truly outstanding directors of British cinema and one whose work is long overdue for reconsideration This major study ranges over Reed s entire career combining observation of general trends and patterns with detailed analysis of twenty films both acknowledged masterpieces and lesser known works Evans avoids a simplistic auteurist approach placing the films in their autobiographical socio political and cultural contexts and relating these to the analysis of Reed s art The critical approach combines psychoanalysis gender theory and the analysis of form Archival research is also relied on to clarify Reed s relations with his creative team financial backers and others Films examined include Bank Holiday A Girl Must Live Odd Man Out The Fallen Idol The Third Man Night Train to Munich The Way Ahead Outcast of the Islands Trapeze and Oliver Films of Carol Reed R Moss,2016-01-06 a handbook on SPOKEN ENGLISH for Filipinos , depth has been central to critical thinking in numerous humanities based disciplines legitimizing certain modes of inquiry over others Deep Mediations examines why and how this is as scholars today navigate the legacy of depth models of thought and vision particularly in light of the surface turn and as these models impinge on the realms of cinema and media studies The collection s eighteen essays seek to understand the decisive but evolving fixation on depth by considering the term s use across a range of conversations as well as its status in relation to critical methodologies and the current mediascape Engaging contemporary debates about new computing technologies the environment history identity affect audio visual culture and the limits and politics of human perception Deep Mediations is a timely interrogation of depth s ongoing importance within the humanities Contributors Laurel Ahnert Taylor Arnold U of Richmond Erika Balsom King s College London Brooke Belisle Stony Brook University Jinhee Choi King s College London Jennifer Fay Vanderbilt U Lisa Han UC Santa Barbara Jean Ma Stanford U Shaka McGlotten Purchase College SUNY Susanna Paasonen U of Turku Finland Jussi Parikka U of Southampton Alessandra Raengo Georgia State U Pooja Rangan Amherst College Katherine Rochester VIA Art Fund in Boston Karl Schoonover University of Warwick UK Jordan Schonig Michigan State U John Paul Stadler North Carolina State U Nicole Starosielski New York U Lauren Tilton U of Richmond
