Looking For Happiness:

Knowing Other Minds Anita Avramides, Matthew Parrott, 2019-09-05 We all take it for granted that we are typically in a position to know about the thoughts and feelings of other people But we might naturally wonder how we acquire this kind of knowledge Knowing Other Minds brings together ten original chapters written by internationally renowned researchers on questions that arise from our everyday social interaction with others Can we have direct perceptual knowledge of another person's thoughts How do we acquire general conceptions of mental states What lessons can be drawn from experimental work in developmental psychology Are there fundamental differences between the ways in which we acquire knowledge of our own minds and the ways in which we acquire knowledge of someone else's mind What sort of cognitive processing underlies our everyday social understanding How should we best think of the relationship between our complex social life and moral value The chapters in this volume convey a variety of different perspectives and make a number of novel contributions to the existing literature on these questions thereby opening up new avenues of inquiry Furthermore they illustrate how questions in philosophy and questions from empirical cognitive science overlap and mutually inform one another

What's Up, RAD? Cary J. Stegman MD,2023-10-16

What's Up Rad is a collection of vignettes stories of brave patients consulting colleagues collaborating physicians notable nurses and ancillary medical personnel both heartwarming and heartbreaking All stories are TRUE Hopefully these narratives will bring insight the insight that The good physician treats the disease the great physician treats the patient who has the disease You may shed a few tears be awed by healthcare advances reap some chuckles and garner increased empathy Dr Cary Stegman practiced as a board certified diagnostic radiologist and nuclear medicine physician for 43 years and through these vignettes we see his personal growth and how he met and exceeded the demands of his profession a special profession in which the tree of life bears an extraordinary abundance of the sweet and sour fruits of life This his second book to be published recounts emotional interactions during his 45 years in medical training and practice His first published book The New Old Testament was an attempt to awaken people to the why and how of their poor critical thinking He also wrote and spoke to state legislators and end of life national organizations about a new approach to end of life medical intervention In his blog JigSawpuzzlings he addresses medical and other societal concerns Cary J Stegman is a man of prodigious talents He could have been an architect he played a major role in designing many of the outpatient offices for our medical practice and most thought his ideas were improvements on plans submitted by professionals He redesigned his own home into a showplace Cary could have been a graphic designer he crafted the logo for our practice After some years a new design was sought from a local expert who returned with many possibilities All of these were considered but none was better than the original Stegman's work remains the emblem of the practice after more than 40 years Cary Stegman is a philosopher He has thought so deeply about the state of the world today that he has written a book THE NEW OLD TESTAMENT which reconstructs Genesis and part of Exodus from the five books of Moses to reflect modern science and sensibilities He is of course a physician His many years of practice are marked by brilliance as a diagnostician and skill with very small instruments Cary is a writer producing concise and meaningful prose as you will find here But most of all Cary Stegman is a caring and empathetic human being His care for other humans shines through all he writes and through all he does You will find it here seeping through the humor and pathos of his long years in practice Read and kvell ENJOY Jonathan Levy MD
