Looking Through My Window:

Look Through My Window Samantha Stephenson, 2020-04-07 A collection of the most popular reflections from the blog Spirituality of the Ordinary Look Through My Window Glimpses of God in a Mother's Heart invites readers to see God in the everyday Drawing on the spirituality of St Ignatius of Loyola the book paints a picture of what it looks like to see the vocation of motherhood through the eyes of faith finding the profound in the simple and the beauty in the mess I Looked Through My Window Michaela Morgan, 2005 Give your young children the best start to learning English with Jamboree Storytime's interactive play based approach One of ten beautifully illustrated Readers in the Jamboree Storytime series the storybooks provide engaging and lively stories in authentic English with strong visual support Jamboree Storytime is an exciting new series designed to introduce the English language to children aged 3-5 It nurtures and extends their developing awareness of stories and integrates this with language learning through songs rhymes puppets and play based activities The series has been specifically developed to encourage a love of stories and reading in young children and to begin to introduce the English language in an accessible and enjoyable way Playing to the Gods Melanie Rawn, 2017-08-29 The boys are at the top of their theatrical game Nevertheless the past years of financial struggle since their manager proved to have been embezzling have taken a toll on the group's creativity A shocking event brings all that to an end and brings Touchstone back together to create a play that will rattle the ceilings and shatter all the glass in palaces and theaters alike Bowling Cherries & Blowing Raspberries Sand-dee Rose Waybill, 2008 Psycho Possession Eliot Banaszak, 2025-06-13 Book 2 follows Jessica and several new characters who were affected by Henry's rampage A gut wrenching story that dives into the mental state of these characters as they battle hatred depression and suicide It also follows Henry and the conflict that continues to battle inside his own head as the demons from within continue to take over his mind I loved him I hated him He was my world He destroyed mine Rooted and Rising Leah D. Schade, Margaret Bullitt-Jonas, 2019-11-01 Rooted and Rising is for everyone who worries about the climate crisis and seeks spiritual practices and perspectives to renew their capacity for compassionate purposeful and joyful action Leah Schade and Margaret Bullitt-Jonas gather twenty-one faith leaders scientists community organizers theologians and grassroots climate activists to offer wisdom for fellow pilgrims grappling with the weight of climate change Acknowledging the unprecedented nature of our predicament the fact that climate disruption is unraveling the web of life and threatening the end of human civilization the authors share their stories of grief and hope fear and faith Together the essays introductory sections and discussion questions reveal that our present crisis can elicit a depth of wisdom insight and motivation with power to guide us toward a more peaceful just and Earth honoring future With a foreword by Mary Evelyn Tucker and a special introduction by Bill McKibben the book presents an interfaith perspective that welcomes and challenges readers of all backgrounds Droll stories of Isthmian life Evelyn Saxton, 2022-06-03 Evelyn Saxton's Droll Stories of Isthmian Life is an evocative collection that dives into the multifarious experiences on the Isthmus of Panama Saxton's prose combines the descriptive finesse of a seasoned wordsmith with the observational humour inherent to droll storytelling The first part anchors readers in the transformative voyage from a frostbitten New York to the vibrant albeit disorienting reality of Panama Saxton crafts a rich tapestry of characters each embodying the motley nature of life on the isthmus a perfect canvas for exploring themes of displacement belonging and the nuances of cultural intersections The second section continues these explorations with a focus on the quotidian quirks of Isthmian existence all the while maintaining a light touch that gives the work its idiosyncratic charm within the literary panorama of expatriate literature Saxton's own peripatetic background informs her narrative her years of travel and expatriate life have lent authenticity to her depiction of Isthmian life Her attention to the textures of the environment and the interpersonal dynamics of her diverse cast is reflective of someone who has not only observed but lived through the subtleties she describes Her insights bridge the personal and the universal making her tales resonate well beyond their immediate setting Saxton's keen eye for detail and her ability to find the extraordinary in the ordinary no doubt stem from her own experiences of uprooting and resettling of finding familiarity in foreignness This book comes heartily recommended to readers eager to traverse the Isthmus through Saxton's narrative expertise It holds particular appeal for those with an interest in the cultural melting pot of Central America and the diasporic narratives that emerge from such a context Saxton's skillful blend of humor and pathos makes Droll Stories of Isthmian Life a poignant and delightful journey illuminating the human condition through its Isthmian lens

Reading Is My Window Megan Sweeney, 2010-02-15 Drawing on extensive interviews with ninety four women prisoners Megan Sweeney examines how incarcerated women use available reading materials to come to terms with their pasts negotiate their present experiences and reach toward different futures Foregrounding the voices of African American women Sweeney analyzes how prisoners read three popular genres narratives of victimization urban crime fiction and self help books She outlines the history of reading and education in U S prisons highlighting how the increasing dehumanization of prisoners has resulted in diminished prison libraries and restricted opportunities for reading Although penal officials have sometimes endorsed reading as a means to control prisoners Sweeney illuminates the resourceful ways in which prisoners educate and empower themselves through reading Given the scarcity of counseling and education in prisons women use books to make meaning from their experiences to gain guidance and support to experiment with new ways of being and to maintain connections with the world

Mastering Family Therapy Salvador Minuchin, Wai-Yung Lee, George M. Simon, 2007-06-15 A master class in family therapy now updated with an additional ten years case experience Few people have had as profound an impact on the theory and practice of family therapy as Salvador Minuchin As one commentator put it Memories of his classic sessions have become the standard against which therapists judge their own best work This new edition of the classic Mastering Family Therapy offers beginners and experienced practitioners alike the opportunity to learn the art and science of family therapy under this pioneering clinician and teacher

In elegant clinical interplays Minuchin his colleagues Wai Yung Lee and George Simon and eight advanced students provide answers to such critical questions as What does it take to master the art of family therapy How do I create an effective personal style How can I become an instrument for growth for troubled families This updated Second Edition features An overview and critique of new models of treatment in the field especially evidence based models of family treatment New case material highlighting the impact of societal context on families Minuchin s conceptualization of a four step process of family assessment including how history can impact current family functioning A new and thoroughly revised version of the classic text Mastering Family Therapy Second Edition is essential reading for all those who practice study or teach family therapy

The Years of Awakening J Krishnamurti,2022-09-09 Jiddu Krishnamurti 1895 1986 was an independent spiritual teacher for the rest of his life writing many books such as Krishnamurti Reader No 1 You are the World Commentaries on living First series from the notebooks of J Krishnamurti Mary Lutyens 1908 1999 was a British author best known for her three volume biography of Jiddu Krishnamurti the other volumes in this series are Krishnamurti The Years of Fulfilment and Krishnamurti The Open Door She wrote in the Foreword to this 1975 book This account of the life of the first thirty eight years of Krishnamurti s life has been written at his suggestion and with all the help he has been able to give me it shows the circumstances of the unfolding of Krishnamurti s teaching and demonstrates his extraordinary achievement in freeing himself from the many hands that clutched at him in an endeavour to force him into the role of traditional Messiah He told his audience I maintain that Truth is a pathless land and you cannot approach it by any path whatsoever by any religion by any sect I do not want to belong to any organization of a spiritual kind please understand this Lutyens sympathetic yet detailed and critical biography is must reading for anyone wanting to know more about Krishnamurti Nadirs Herta M_ller, A Bullet Between The Eyes Elizabeth Splendor,2023-02-09 A riveting novel of suspense adventure and survival A Bullet Between The Eyes tells the story of Sana a young brave woman living in the perilous Middle East When the Middle East s most feared terrorist gang is hired to pin down Sana into giving up her inheritance to her husband s family she is held at bay and must choose between rolling the dice on her unknown fate or succumbing to the bloody fate the terrorists impose on her A Bullet Between The Eyes is a fascinating and moving tale of the triumph of love and wit where one woman is determined to create a good life for herself and her children in a land where the rule of law is frail and the law of the clan is paramount
