Ottomans Looking West? Can Erimtan,2008-03-30 The Tulip Age a concept that described the beginning of the Ottoman Empire s westward inclination in the eighteenth century was an idea proposed by Ottoman historian Ahmed Refik in 1912 In the first reassessment of the origins of this concept Can Erimtan argues the Tulip Age was an important template for various political and ideological concerns of early twentieth century Turkish governments The concept is most reflective of the 1930s Republican leadership s attempt to disengage Turkey s population from its Islamic culture and past stressing the virtues of progress modernity and secularism It was only the death of Ataturk in 1938 that precipitated a hesitant revival of Islam in Turkey s public life and a state sponsored re invigoration of research into Turkey s Ottoman past In this exciting reassessment Erimtan shows us that the trope of the Tulip Age corresponds more to Turkish society s desire to re orientate itself to the Occident throughout the twentieth century rather than to early eighteenth century Ottoman realities
