Beneatha's Place Kwame Kwei-Armah,2023-07-13 Some things we do for those we are responsible for some things for ourselves and some things we do for the ancestors Today it s all three 1959 The first wave of independence is sweeping across Africa and Beneatha has left the prejudice of 1950s America for a brighter future with her Nigerian husband in Lagos But on the day they move into their new house in the white suburbs it doesn t take long for cracks to appear changing the course of the rest of their lives Present day Now a renowned Dean whose colleagues are questioning the role of African American studies for future generations Beneatha returns to the same house in search of answers Inspired by Lorraine Hansberry s ground breaking modern classic A Raisin in the Sun Beneatha s Place challenges today s culture wars about colonial history and reckoning with the past A razor sharp satire from Young Vic Artistic Director Kwame Kwei Armah about the power of knowing your history and the cost of letting it go this edition was published to coincide with the London premiere at the Young Vic Theatre in June 2023 Three One Act Plays Peter Routis,2019-09-24 When the Prince of Darkness decides to destroy Job the curtain on his life and that of his family will be drawn Although a loyal servant to God Job finds peace with himself and his God after his destruction where he finally finds his place in heaven The Tragedy of Job captivates the audience with the brilliant elegant and compelling dialogues and soliloquies which bring to life this biblical tragedy Eli a Jewish high priest one of the last Israelite judges before the rule of kings lived his life serving God at the tabernacle in Shiloh He took under his wings Samuel who succeeded him as the last Israelite judge His end comes at the age of ninety eight when he learnt blind now that his sons were killed by the Philistines the Ark of the Covenant was captured and his daughter in law dies while giving birth to a son With captivating dialogues and soliloquies the drama of Eli underlines one of the most heartbreaking tragedies of the biblical era When the earth is destroyed due to climate change there are two lonely souls who meet at the side of a mountain trying to make sense out of this The Old Man who has spent his life searching for the truth desperation takes over him Someone said that darkness hides the truth And someone else said that darkness is everywhere But there is hope as long as the sun rises every morning and the stars shine above the ruins of civilization But hope always comes after hopeless moments I thought you mocked me the other night I thought you would never appear again But there you are Is that a hope It can t be But again what kind of a hope when everything is hopeless For Johanna and Theodore who deserve better I know that each one of us travels to love alone alone to faith and to death I know it I ve tried it It doesn t help Let me come with you Giannis Ritsos 20th century Poet The Cinematic Jane Austen David Monaghan,Ariane Hudelet,John Wiltshire,2014-01-10 Jane Austen s novels are loved because they possess a comedic power that is often conveyed through the singular voice of the narrators Film adaptations however have often been unsatisfactory

because they lack or awkwardly render features particularly the voice of the narrators This work argues for a fresh approach that begins with a reading of the novels that emphasizes their auditory and visual dimensions Building on their examination of Austen's inherently cinematic features the authors then develop productive new readings of the films
