Lord Kilgobbin Charles James Lever, 2016-06-21 Some one has said that almost all that Ireland possesses of picturesque beauty is to be found on or in the immediate neighbourhood of the seaboard and if we except some brief patches of river scenery on the Nore and the Blackwater and a part of Lough Erne the assertion is not devoid of truth The dreary expanse called the Bog of Allen which occupies a tableland in the centre of the island stretches away for miles flat sad coloured and monotonous fissured in every direction by channels of dark tinted water in which the very fish take the same sad colour This tract is almost without trace of habitation save where at distant intervals utter destitution has raised a mud hovel undistinguishable from the hillocks of turf around it
