Losing My Faculties A Teachers Story:

Losing My Faculties Brendan Halpin, 2015-03-31 In his first nine years as a teacher Brendan Halpin goes from wide eyed idealist to cynical heartbroken idealist Unique among teaching memoirs Losing My Faculties is not the story of a heroic teacher who transforms the lives of his hardbitten students rather it s the inspirational and often unpretty truth about people who choose to get up ridiculously early day after day and year after year to go stand in front of teenagers It s also a rarely seen all access view of both suburban and urban education including the ugly truth behind the mythology at a much hyped charter school

Fearless Confessions Sue William Silverman, 2010-01-25 Everyone has a story to tell Fearless Confessions is a guidebook for people who want to take possession of their lives by putting their experiences down on paper or in a Web site or e book Enhanced with illustrative examples from many different writers as well as writing exercises this guide helps writers navigate a range of issues from craft to ethics to marketing and will be useful to both beginners and more accomplished writers The rise of interest in memoir recognizes the power of the genre to move and affect not just individual readers but society at large Sue William Silverman covers traditional writing topics such as metaphor theme plot and voice and also includes chapters on trusting memory and cultivating the courage to tell one s truth in the face of forces from family members to the media who would prefer that people with inconvenient pasts and views remain silent Silverman an award winning memoirist draws upon her own personal and professional experience to provide an essential resource for transforming life into words that matter Fearless Confessions is an atlas that contains maps to the remarkable places in each person s life that have yet to be explored

His Story, My Story, Our Story Brian Ahearn, CPCU, CMCT, 2024-06-04 His Story My Story Our Story is a heartrending tale that illuminates the stark realities of war from the battlegrounds of Vietnam to the emotional frontlines at home Following a Marine veteran the narrative intricately unravels his grapple with PTSD and the profound ripple effect it has on his family particularly his son Crafted from the personal wartime accounts of Brian Ahearn Sr and juxtaposed with his son s Brian Ahearn Jr candid reflections on growing up under the shadow of trauma this story bridges two generations marked by war s enduring scars The dual lens through which His Story My Story Our Story is told provides a first hand account of war and its aftershock within a family setting Through raw storytelling it seeks to guide Marines in evading service related pitfalls fortify understanding between Marine families and mend the delicate fabric of father son relationships Addressing the often unspoken emotional challenges faced by military families this profound and insightful work serves as a healing blueprint for those navigating the intricate dance of love duty trauma and legacy standing as a beacon of hope and resilience

Mis-education in Schools Howard Good, 2007 In Mis Education in Schools Beyond the Slogans and Double Talk Howard Good uses his experiences as a parent teacher and school board member to explore what s gone wrong with education and how to make it right Readers will be challenged by Good s candid perspective and engaged by his energetic prose

American Book Publishing Record ,2003 Academic Motherhood in a Post Second Wave Context Hallstein Lynn O'Brien,2012-04-01 Contributors detail what it means to be an academic mother and to think about academic motherhood while also exploring both the personal and specific institutional challenges academic women face the multifaceted strategies different academic women are implementing to manage those challenges and investigating different theoretical possibilities for how we think about academic motherhood Short Stories Byron R. Bowen,2013-09-05 This collection of short stories is new original and modern Thought some are fiction several of the stories in the collection are based on actual experiences and events or recognizable events Reconceptualizing Social Justice in Teacher Education Susan Browne,Gaëtane Jean-Marie,2022-11-28 This edited volume explores and extends themes in contemporary educational research on teacher preparation and the evolution in social justice education to antiracist pedagogy These times call for teacher education to reconsider how the work devoted to social justice is explicit and intentional about its commitment to a racially just society What does it mean for teacher education to seize this moment to confront racism and inequities that continue to perpetuate in society and school The book highlights efforts that are being augmented to prepare teacher candidates and future faculty to address systemic racism in their teaching practices The Principal's Companion Pam Robbins,Harvey B. Alvy,2014-02-18 The classic personal guide for principals updated to address today s challenges Of all the elements needed for a successful school a competent responsive and visionary principal may be the most important And for over a decade principals of all experience levels have turned to The Principal s Companion for ideas techniques and reflective opportunities that help them do their jobs better The thoroughly updated fourth edition covers big picture strategies and day to day tactics such as The principal s many roles Critical skills for effective leadership Honoring the school s mission Working together to build a learning community Starting effectively and staying the course Christian Statesman ,1922

Smudging Composition Lines of Identity and Teacher Knowledge Elaine Chan,Vicki Ross,2023-12-08 The dilemmas and tensions uncovered directly from the perspective of teachers and teacher educators develop narrative inquiry as a methodological approach to examining teacher knowledge in cross cultural teaching providing invaluable findings for teachers teacher educators and educational researchers internationally The Missing Puzzle Pieces Joan Zaretsky,2023-04-28 Joan Zaretsky was adopted as an infant and grew up in a loving happy home with adoptive parents who supported her to experience many opportunities Following her retirement and her adoptive parents passing away Joan courageously endeavors to reconnect with her birth family but this journey won t be without difficulty She may not find acceptance at every door at which she knocks and will have to overcome other hardships like cancer loss and mourning But ultimately the little windfalls and serendipities of life could lead her to more love and family than ever The Missing Puzzle Pieces Finding My Birth Family is the incredible true story of Joan Zaretsky s life and post retirement search for her birth family It s a must have memoir for fans of heartfelt feel good stories of family and an inspiring relatable read for those involved in adoption or who may be facing trials in their life It s never too late to find what s missing Born Into Loss Sarah Reed Vollmann,Joann M. O'Leary,2024-12-03 Subsequent siblings who are sometimes referred to as replacement children are people who were born after the death of a brother or sister Little has been written about them or from their perspective This non fiction self help psychology book breaks new ground by assembling rich and heartfelt life stories from a diverse group of subsequent siblings while also weaving in clinical literature and discussion It is based upon more than one hundred subsequent sibling interviews which to the authors knowledge currently comprises the largest and most diverse sample of this group Through the subjects engaging narratives the reader can understand some of the common obstacles and repercussions of the subsequent sibling role Additional testimonies from parents and surviving siblings illuminate the multilayered impacts of loss upon a family system Those who are born after a deceased sibling enter a family that has been forever changed by loss This book provides a brief overview of the research on subsequent children and the concept of the replacement child It examines the parental experience of the death of a child the complexity of pregnancy after loss and the intrauterine and attachment experiences of children born after loss The death of a child causes immense parental pain and impacts parenting approaches perhaps resulting in impaired bonding or overprotectiveness of subsequent children Some subsequent siblings are expected consciously or unconsciously to serve as a replacement for their lost sibling and to fill the void of loss A variety of replacement dynamics can occur and in some instances the subsequent child is viewed as an inadequate substitute for a deceased and idealized sibling This book explores common issues that are faced by subsequent siblings which include impaired bonding with parents a sense of pressure to heal their families survivor guilt phobias difficulties with identity formation and the shouldering of caretaker roles Their loss and experiences are often unrecognized because they were born after their sibling s death Like most mourners many subsequent siblings need to make meaning of their loss It is often complex for them to grieve for an unmet sibling or to integrate their sibling s death into their life story Many subsequent siblings also recognize strengths that they have gained because of their role This book includes chapters about surviving siblings and children who were born after a sibling with special needs The American Schoolmaster,1926
