Siegfried Sassoon - The First Complete Biography of One of Our Greatest War Poets John Stuart Roberts, 2014-06-05 A FINE ENGROSSING SYMPATHETIC STUDY OF SASSOON THE TIMES With two collections of his verse written during the First World War Siegfried Sassoon established himself as among the greatest of the war poets Beyond that the accounts he left of his service with the Royal Welch Fusiliers on the Western Front beginning with Memoirs of a Fox Hunting Man in 1928 rank perhaps as highly as his poetry and have done much to shape our modern perception of that war His is and remains one of the most significant voices of his generation and arguably the most eloquent As an infantry officer Sassoon's courage won him the Military Cross and a recommendation for the VC for rescuing men under fire while his boldness in action earned him the nickname Mad Jack he was also wounded several times once seriously As the war dragged on however he came to see it as a cynical exercise leading him to write an anti war letter to The Times and to tear the ribbon of his MC from his tunic and throw it into the River Mersey Alarmed the authorities sent him to a hospital for shell shocked officers in Scotland where he came under the care of the leading psychoanalyst Dr W H R Rivers and met and befriended a young officer of the Manchester Regiment named Wilfred Owen Although Sassoon returned to active service his hatred for the war remained and by the time of the Armistice in 1918 he had declared himself a pacifist John Stuart Roberts's widely praised biography is a gripping account of a complex man who was at once a product of the establishment and one of its most passionate critics a war hero and a pacifist who although a towering literary figure refused to align himself with any particular movement Written with a clarity and directness that would have pleased the poet himself this is a biography that looks beyond the common perception of Sassoon as only a war poet to reveal the man in full It is a
