Nuland, 2007-12-18 A writer renowned for his insight into the mysteries of the body now gives us a lambent and profoundly moving book about the mysteries of family At its center lies Sherwin Nuland's Rembrandtesque portrait of his father Meyer Nudelman a Jewish garment worker who came to America in the early years of the last century but remained an eternal outsider Awkward in speech and movement broken by the premature deaths of a wife and child Meyer ruled his youngest son with a regime of rage dependency and helpless love that outlasted his death In evoking their relationship Nuland also summons up the warmth and claustrophobia of a vanished immigrant New York a world that impelled its children toward success yet made them feel like traitors for leaving it behind Full of feeling and unwavering observation Lost in America deserves a place alongside such classics as Patrimony and Call It Sleep Lost in America Colby Buzzell, 2011-08-23 Nothing less than the soul of an extremely interesting human being at war on our behalf Kurt Vonnegut Astunning portrait of modern America by Colby Buzzell the critically acclaimed author of My War Killing Time in Iraq Recounting his five month journey through the country from its thriving coastlines to its rust belt wrecks Buzzell reveals a paradoxical landscape of American dreams both achieved and broken manifest destinies claimed and refuted and community ties pulled apart and patched together In the tradition of John Steinbeck's Travels with Charley Buzzell's Lost in America uncovers the stark realities of our national character even as it explores the deepest questions of identity unity and fatherhood The New Leader, 2002 Journey to America Manny Quijada, 2022-07-24 We all make important and crucial decisions at some point in life Some decisions can truly be life changing A month after I turned sixteen years old I was given the opportunity to leave my country and go north in the continent to the great United States of America It was not an easy thing to do by any means neither was it to decide over After seeking God's answer in prayer for a few days I decided to leave my known life behind to venture into the unknown trusting in God alone to make it safe to my destination As I made the decision to leave my country that also included leaving behind the most beautiful girl I had known I was risking my life in many ways trying to reach the Land of the Free the Home of the Brave with only one purpose in my heart I wanted nothing more than to become a successful man in order to have something to offer to the girl I considered to be the love of my life This was my one and only reason for leaving my country However as the day for my departure approached the strange feeling that I was going to end up with a broken heart at the end of it all became very overwhelming each day and even more so during the entire journey Although I hoped that was not going to be the case I wanted God's will to be done above all else I believed that God had a reason for taking me away from her my country my friends and family at the time He did If He did not want me to go to America the way I did He simply would have said so when I asked if He wanted me to go It took twenty five days from the day I left my home in El Salvador until the day I arrived at my new home in Orange County California There were a number of dangers that I faced during a three week period going across four different countries traveling for more than three thousand miles While my faith was tested in different ways each day my mind and my body were also put to the test in more ways than I expected It all began on the eleventh day of February in the year two thousand and two A group of fifteen individuals full of hope and dreams of a better future decided to begin a journey that would forever change their lives Although unique my story is not the only one for there are millions more that have come before and after me This however is the story of my Journey to America The Journey Of Nations Steven Warren,2013-02-26 This is a collection of several people Life Journey It tells each person journey their experiences through lives and why they want to advance their life and careers It is a collection of sorrow pain happiness and the incredible will to succeed They have falter gave in to despair and felt loss but they continued with an urgency that shall not be diminished All of these stories is an account of life at its purest and comes from the heart of great people wishing to leave something behind in the hope to inspire others to reach the stars and beyond Index to Jewish Periodicals ,2003 An author and subject index to selected and American
