The Lost Woods H. William Rice, 2014-04-21 A collection that follows the lives of two families who own land and hunt in rural South Carolina The Lost Woods is a collection of fifteen short stories most of them set in and around the fictional small town of Sledge South Carolina The events narrated in the stories begin in the 1930s and continue to the present day The stories aren't accounts of hunting methods or legends of trophy kills they are serious stories about hunting that are similar in style to William Faulkner's Go Down Moses The collection traces the evolution of two families the Whites and the Chapmans as well as the changes in hunting and land use of the past eighty years Some of these stories are narrated in third person others are told by a wide range of characters from grown men and women to children but only from one perspective that of the hunter As they walk the woods in search of turkeys deer or raccoons these characters seek something more than food They seek a lost connection to some part of themselves The title the lost woods is adapted from Cherokee myths and stories wherein people must return again and again to the woods to find animals that were lost Thereby we find not only food but who we are Through these stories Rice reminds us that hunting is inextricably entwined with identity As one of the oldest rituals that we as a species know it reflects both our nobility and our depravity Through it we return again and again to find the lost woods inside ourselves

Torn Jud Wilhite, 2011-08-16 When Every Why Goes Unanswered When our world comes crashing down it does more than steal our peace Something inside us tears We feel broken stranded torn We naturally ask the question Why when we're hurting But as pastor Jud Wilhite turned to the Bible in his own pain he was surprised to discover that another question matters more Who Who is worthy of our trust when our trust when our lives are in pieces You may be experiencing a time of such darkness that you wonder if you will ever find normal again or look toward the future with hope In Torn Jud explores your questions as well as God's answers and God's mysteries With a pastor's heart he looks with you at practical ways to fight for joy deal with anger and depression and make the million tiny decisions that add up to a life committed to God even when your heart is broken It's not about having better arguments for the purpose behind our suffering It's about our relationship with God a relationship that can flourish even when our whys go unanswered
