The CIA and Third Force Movements in China during the Early Cold War Roger B. Jeans, 2017-11-27 When the Chinese Communists defeated the Chinese Nationalists and occupied the mainland in 1949 1950 U S policymakers were confronted with a dilemma Disgusted by the corruption and more importantly failure of Chiang Kai shek s Nationalist armies and party and repelled by the Communists revolutionary actions and violent class warfare in the early 1950s the U S government placed its hopes in a Chinese third force While the U S State Department reported on third forces the CIA launched a two prong effort to actively support these groups with money advisors and arms In Japan Okinawa and Saipan the agency trained third force troops at CIA bases The Chinese commander of these soldiers was former high ranking Nationalist General Cai Wenzhi He and his colleagues organized a political group the Free China Movement His troops received parachute training as well as other types of combat and intelligence instruction at agency bases Subsequently several missions were dispatched to Manchuria the Korean War was raging then and South China All were failures and the Chinese third force agents were killed or imprisoned With the end of the Korean War the Americans terminated this armed third force movement with the Nationalists on Taiwan taking in some of its soldiers while others moved to Hong Kong The Americans flew Cai to Washington where he took a job with the Department of Defense The second prong of the CIA s effort was in Hong Kong The agency financially supported and advised the creation of a third force organization called the Fighting League for Chinese Freedom and Democracy It also funded several third force periodicals Created in 1951 and 1952 in 1953 and 1954 the CIA ended its financial support As a consequence of this as well as factionalism within the group in 1954 the League collapsed and its leaders scattered to the four winds At the end even the term third force was discredited and replaced by new force Finally in the early 1950s the CIA backed as a third force candidate a Vietnamese general With his assassination in May 1955 however that effort also came to naught

The Booklist ,1966 Revolution, Rebellion, Resistance

Professor Eric Selbin, 2010-01-14 Why do revolutions happen Decades of social science research have brought us little closer to understanding where when and amongst whom they occur In this groundbreaking book Eric Selbin argues that we need to look beyond the economic political and social structural conditions to the thoughts and feelings of the people who make revolutions In particular he argues we need to understand the stories people relay and rework of past injustices and struggles as they struggle in the present towards a better future Ranging from the French Revolution to the Battle for Seattle via Russia China Cuba Vietnam and Nicaragua Selbin makes the case that it is myth memory and mimesis which create maintain and extend such stories Revolution Rebellion Resistance identifies four kinds of enduring revolutionary story Civilizing and Democratizing The Social Revolution Freedom and Liberation and The Lost and Forgotten which do more than report on events they catalyse changing the world

Davis (Anthropologist), 2020 In The Struggle for a Multilingual Future Christina Davis examines the tension between ethnic conflict and multilingual education policy in the linguistic and social practices of Sri Lankan minority youth Facing a legacy of post independence language and education policies that were among the complex causes of the Sri Lankan civil war 1983 2009 the government has recently sought to promote interethnic integration through trilingual language policies in Sinhala Tamil and English in state schools Integrating ethnographic and linguistic research in and around two schools during the last phase of the war Davis s research shows how despite the intention of the reforms practices on the ground reinforce language based models of ethnicity and sustain ethnic divisions and power inequalities By engaging with the actual experiences of Tamil and Muslim youth Davis demonstrates the difficulties of using language policy to ameliorate ethnic conflict if it does not also address how that conflict is produced and reproduced in everyday talk The Booklist and Subscription Books Bulletin, 1966 Those who Were There Merritt Clifton, 1984 The New Republic Herbert David Croly, 1908 Bibliographic Series University of Florida.
