Making a Difference in Urban Schools Jane Stobo Gaskell, Ben Levin, 2012-01-01 Making a Difference in Urban Schools evaluates how school and community leaders have worked to change urban education in Canada for the better over the past fifty years

Schooling the System Funké Aladejebi, 2021-03-05 In post World War II Canada black women's positions within the teaching profession served as sites of struggle and conflict as the nation worked to address the needs of its diversifying population From their entry into teachers college through their careers in the classroom and administration black women educators encountered systemic racism and gender barriers at every step So they worked to change the system Using oral narratives to tell the story of black access and education in Ontario between the 1940s and the 1980s Schooling the System provides textured insight into how issues of race gender class geographic origin and training shaped women's distinct experiences within the profession By valuing women's voices and lived experiences Funk Aladejebi illustrates that black women as a diverse group made vital contributions to the creation and development of anti racist education in Canada As cultural mediators within Ontario school systems these women circumvented subtle and overt forms of racial and social exclusion to create resistive teaching methods that centred black knowledges and traditions Within their wider communities and activist circles they fought to change entrenched ideas about what Canadian citizenship should look like As schools continue to grapple with creating diverse educational programs for all Canadians Schooling the System is a timely excavation of the meaningful contributions of black women educators who helped create equitable policies and practices in schools and communities

Xam idea Social Science Complete Course Book | Class 7 | Includes CBSE Question Bank and NCERT Exemplar (Solved) | NEP | Examination 2023-2024 Xamidea Editorial Board, What Hath Eve Wrought? or W.H.E.W.! Marilyn M.

Adams, 2011-09-15 What Hath Eve Wrought or W H E W is an historical view of how the Creation story of Eve as the sinner in the Garden became an all important element in the nineteenth century to suppress the idea of the equality of womankind. Many women began to realize their sub citizen status had been perpetrated for centuries by a myth holding that all women descendants of Eve were relegated to a position below that of superior man. The first woman's convention held in 1848 and led by Elizabeth Cady Stanton brought nation wide attention to the demands for voting rights for the social and legal rights that had been withheld from all women. Now the fear of what the equality of women would do to the long held superiority of men became the basis for decades of gynophobia. Few of the events of the long struggle for equality have been reported in history text books, a paltry number of suffragists have been acknowledged, the words of the anti feminist men have seldom been disclosed, the voices and deeds of the many pro feminist men who bravely assisted in the struggle that eventually led to the passage of the Nineteenth Amendment surfaced late in the last century. What is presented, what is read and taught in educational institutions regarding the long fought battle for equality must become a necessary ingredient in the discipline of American History. What Hath Eve Wrought intends to begin that process.
