The Book News Monthly ,1916 Obi: Gerbil on a Mission Michael Delaney,2012-04-12 There s a new puppy at Obi the gerbil s house and he s bigger furrier and more slobbery than Obi And he s getting all the attention But when the puppy runs away Obi feels it s her duty to bring him back So off she goes on a mission filled with obstacles from a hungry owl to a giant dog to snarky cats But with perseverance and pluck Obi is able to bring the puppy safely home With clever illustrations this funny adventurous sequel to Obi Gerbil on the Loose will leave kids squawking for more Teachers' Reading/Teachers'

Lives Mary Kay Rummel,Elizabeth P. Quintero,1997-08-28 The premise of this book is important that teachers literacy experiences not only make a difference in their literacy instruction but also in their professional judgment and actions related to curriculum decisions and their resistance to prescribed methods and materials which do not allow children s literacy to flourish The teachers own words in the autobiographical chapters offer powerful testimony supporting approaches to literacy that encourage and support the job of reading and writing rather than pedantic and meaningless curriculum methods that emphasize isolated skills and drills The topic is very significant There is currently a backlash against the whole language approach which through the years has had other titles but has always emphasized the creative responsive teaching described in meaningful individual integrated and joyful approaches to the teaching of reading and writing This book could have a positive influence on the current discussions about the teaching of literacy The Publishers Weekly ,1881 The Perfect Summer Julien Neel, 2013-11-01 Meet the new Lou She's thirteen years old so it's time to stop mooning over the guy who used to be the guy next door Instead she's heading for a dreamy seaside village with her friends Mina Mary Emily and Karen Let the boy hunt begin But the first cute boy she spots is Tristan the guy next door himself It's the perfect opportunity to rekindle their romance So why is Lou giving Tristan the cold shoulder And why can't Tristan strike up a conversation that doesn't end with his foot in his mouth It doesn't help that Mary Emily is making the moves on Tristan herself And things get really messy when Lou's mom shows up with a surprise Lou's old pal Paul But Paul is just a friend nothing more right

Murder with the Lot Sue Williams, 2013-02-27 A smart sassy self-appointed private investigator Cass Tuplin is unforgettable and the town of Rusty Bore will never be the same Cass Tuplin's takeaway isn't the last shop left in Rusty Bore There's also Vern's General Store But it's true the town's not exactly overflowing with residents and a stranger in Cass's shop is quite an event Especially one like Clarence suspicious bleeding looking for a burger with the lot and somewhere quiet to stay Cass knows just the place Then she finds out more about Clarence and wants him out of town but it turns out that's not as easy as it sounds And then she finds the body It sounds like a job for the local police Except that the local police is Cass's son Dean who has his doubts about Cass And there's no way he's expending police resources on his mother's fantasy crimes not anymore So it looks like Cass is going to have to find the killer on her own Sue Williams is a refreshing and irreverent new voice in crime fiction Australia's answer to Janet Evanovich and Sue Grafton Sue Williams is a science and travel writer and a chartered accountant who also holds a PhD in marine biology Her articles have been published in a range of magazines and on The Science Show on ABC Radio National Sue lives in Melbourne with her husband Murder with the Lot is her first book A well-sauced outback caper with Chiko Rolls and murder Kerry Greenwood This story is told in a wonderful freewheeling style that continually undercuts itself throws ironies around by the mile and in general offers us a character we love from page one even when she's driving her family and several other people crazy Otago Daily Times There is a murder there may be mafia involved Or so thinks Cass your classic nosy small Aussie town Miss Marple although her manner and turn of phrase are somewhat less refined A racy romp Weekend Herald Enjoyable easy to read with a few well-timed twists and turns and a touch of very Australian humour Ballarat Courier Cass is a very funny character AustCrime A debut novel as dinky di as an outback salute Adelaide Advertiser An easy-flowing story with plenty of humour and amusing observations by Cass In all an entertaining and enjoyable read that also effectively captures the plight of rural Australia Canberra Times Let's hope that Murder with the Lot is the first of many capers for Cass Sisters in Crime Changing Lives Mark

Griffiths, 2017-11-17 This book offers practical insights and proven strategies for fostering a flourishing church community by transforming churches through effective family and kids ministry leadership Changing Lives covers everything you need to know about working with children and families the why to the how to the when to and the where to Mark Griffiths examines the history theology and practice of children's ministry and shares the wisdom he has gained from many years experience of leading hundreds of groups assemblies and youth services In practical chapters backed with sample resources he shows how to communicate with children in the brave new postmodern world of church school and community This one stop resource covers everything from the vision for children s work to matters such as record keeping home visits timetables child protection legislation and templates for lessons

Social Class and Educational Inequality Iram Siraj,Aziza Mayo,2014-06-05 Social class is often seen as an intractable barrier to success yet a number of children from disadvantaged backgrounds still manage to show resilience and succeed against the odds This book presents the findings from fifty Child and Family Case Studies CFCS conducted with 13 16 year olds The authors look specifically at the roles that people and experiences at home in schools and in the wider community have played in the learning life courses of these children how these factors have affected their achievement and explanations and meanings given by respondents to the unique characteristics experiences and events in their lives Featuring the voices of real parents and children and backed up by a decade of quantitative data this is a compelling record that will help readers to understand the complex nature of social disadvantage and the interplay between risk and protective factors in homes and schools that can make for a transformational educational experience
