Olson, 2022-03-17 How can shadows determine the date and time of a painting by Johannes Vermeer How did the Moon and tides cause the loss of King John s crown jewels In his newest book Professor Olson author of Celestial Sleuth and Further Adventures of the Celestial Sleuth explores how astronomical clues can uncover fascinating new details about art history and literature He begins with an accessible introduction to amateur celestial sleuthing showing how to use your astronomical knowledge software archives vintage maps historical letters and diaries military records and other resources to investigate the past Follow along as Professor Olson then explores twenty real world cases where astronomy has helped answer unresolved questions or correct longstanding interpretations about an event Examples involve artists such as Vermeer Monet and O Keeffe the historical exploits of Alexander the Great the desert travels of the Death Valley 49ers and a meeting between Franklin D Roosevelt and Winston Churchill in Marrakech and literary works by Chaucer Shakespeare and Longfellow Packed with dozens of full color illustrations this book will enrich your knowledge of the past and equip you with all the tools you ll need to become a celestial sleuth yourself Many people have a passion for art or world history or great literature or even astronomy but seldom in all these things at once This remarkable book by Donald Olson of Texas State University will put you in touch with such seemingly unrelated endeavors It will open your eyes and broaden your mind as little else could Roger W Sinnott Sky Telescope Impressionism Nathalia Brodskaya,2014-05-10 I paint what I see and not what it pleases others to see What other words than these of douard Manet seemingly so different from the sentiments of Monet or Renoir could best define the Impressionist movement Without a doubt this singularity was explained when shortly before his death Claude Monet wrote I remain sorry to have been the cause of the name given to a group the majority of which did not have anything Impressionist In this work Nathalia Brodskaya a examines the contradictions of this late 19th century movement through the paradox of a group who while forming a coherent ensemble favoured the affirmation of artistic individuals Between academic art and the birth of modern non figurative painting the road to recognition was long Analysing the founding elements of the movement the author follows through the works of each of the artists how the demand for individuality gave rise to modern painting Further Adventures of the Celestial Sleuth Donald W. Olson,2018-01-31 From the author of Celestial Sleuth 2014 yet more mysteries in art history and literature are solved by calculating phases of the Moon determining the positions of the planets and stars and identifying celestial objects in paintings In addition to helping to crack difficult cases these studies spark our imagination and provide a better understanding of the skies Weather archives vintage maps tides historical letters and diaries military records and the assistance of experts in related fields help with this work For each historical event influenced by astronomy there is a different kind of mystery to be solved How did the changing tides affect an army s battle plans How did the phases of the moon affect how an artist painted a landscape Follow these exciting investigations with a master celestial sleuth as he tracks down the truth and helps unravel mysteries as far back as the Middle Ages and as recent as the iconic 1945 photograph of a kiss in Times Square on VJ Day Topics or cases pursued were chosen for their wide public recognition and intrigue and involve artists such as Vincent van Gogh and Claude Monet historical events such as the campaigns of Braveheart in Scotland and battles in World War II and the Korean War and literary authors such as Chaucer Cervantes Shakespeare Byron and Edgar Allan Poe Monet's Series Grace Seiberling,1981 Light and Color John S.
