PRESIDENT BELIEVE Beverly Cardozo, 2011-03-26 Since the recession and after losing her job the author decided to take charge of her life made some compelling changes She hates to lose at any opportunity ahead of her with her struggles of traveling different places to look for work moving from job to job it seems impossible to survive This prepared her to do anything in her power to take risk in order to survive in this economy It is impossible not to read this book to become the winner at anything and to guide us through the dark and dismal time this country is coping with such as an economic breakthrough losing all we have worked so hard to achieve Taking charge of her life was a challenge in itself but understanding the power of her mindset she moved on to a road of a different path How to be prosperous again one must be resilient and be ready to accept that attaching oneself emotionally to material gain is not only destructive to your health but it will destroy the power of thinking A motivational book must read for today s Americans to overcome fear and adversity so you can attain your goal taking charge and taking back your prosperity Dear Mr.

President Beverly Cardozo,2010-05 The Bush administration left this country in a state of economic recession and a grim tour of American History The American people are struggling to survive by reinventing ourselves through a sweeping historical event Barack Obama is trying to restore America by promising change to make America regain its dignity by bailing out huge corporations and financial institutions with his stimulus plans Dear Mr President a letter written in form of a book addressing president Obama of his uncertainty leadership and what he is trying to achieve for the American people This book is based solely on my beliefs opinions and how Americans have fallen along the wayside We need to take back America because we have the power Obama needs to restore our faith and trust in the government again and that is no easy task because politicians have to be willing to say things that have true meaning This is a much bigger plan that you bargained for and I hope America will be strong again To do this we must be a community willing to look out for each other helping those that are down and giving a pathway to success Mr. President: A Book of US Presidents George Sullivan,2005-01

Go West Mr. President Michael F. Blake,2020-06-01 In 1903 Theodore Roosevelt planned a tour of the mid West and Western states It was dubbed the Great Loop Tour being careful not to call it a campaign tour although he intended to seek re election the following year Theodore was adamant that his speeches be devoid of any partisan rhetoric nor would he meet solely with Republican office holders in the various cities and towns he planned to visit He would happily shake hands with a Democratic mayor or Senator just as he would a Republican Theodore s speeches which he wrote himself covered subjects of good citizenship a square deal for every man a strong navy and the positive aspects of the recent irrigation bill he signed into law Then there were his speeches relating to conservation of the land forests rivers and wildlife Nowhere did these subjects become more important to him than when he visited Yellowstone the Grand Canyon and Yosemite While he was still three years away from having the law that would knight him as the Conservation President Theodore was already making his mark on preserving the country s resources Listen Up, Mr. President Helen Thomas,Craig Crawford,2009-10-06 Helen

Thomas has covered the administrations of ten presidents in a career spanning nearly sixty years She is known for her famous press conference closing line Thank you Mr President but here she trades deference for directness Thomas and veteran journalist Craig Crawford hold nothing back as they use former occupants of the White House to provide a witty history rich lesson plan of what it takes to be a good president Combining sharp observation and dozens of examples from the fi rst presidency through the forty fourth the authors outline the qualities attitudes and political and personal choices that make for the most successful leaders and the least Calvin Coolidge who hired the fi rst professional speechwriter in the White House illuminates the importance of choosing words wisely William Howard Taft notorious for being so fat he broke his White House bathtub shows how not to cultivate a strong public image John F Kennedy who could handle the press corps and their questions with aplomb shows how to establish a rapport with the press and open oneself up to the public Ronald Reagan who acknowledged the Iran Contra affair in a television address demonstrates how telling hard truths can earn forgiveness and even public trust By gleaning lessons from past leaders Thomas and Crawford not only highlight those that future presidents should follow but also pinpoint what Americans should look for and expect in their president Part history lesson part presidential primer Listen Up Mr President is smart entertaining and exceedingly edifying Mr. President, How Long Must We Wait? Tina Cassidy,2020-03-03 In this heroic narrative The Wall Street Journal discover the inspiring and timely account of the complex relationship between leading suffragist Alice Paul and President Woodrow Wilson in her fight for women s equality Woodrow Wilson lands in Washington DC in March of 1913 a day before he is set to take the presidential oath of office He is surprised by the modest turnout The crowds and reporters are blocks away from Union Station watching a parade of eight thousand suffragists on Pennsylvania Avenue in a first of its kind protest organized by a twenty five year old activist named Alice Paul The next day The New York Times calls the procession one of the most impressively beautiful spectacles ever staged in this country Mr President How Long Must We Wait weaves together two storylines the trajectories of Alice Paul and Woodrow Wilson two apparent opposites Paul s procession of suffragists resulted in her being granted a face to face meeting with President Wilson one that would lead to many meetings and much discussion but little progress for women With no equality in sight and patience wearing thin Paul organized the first group to ever picket in front of the White House lawn night and day through sweltering summer mornings and frigid fall nights From solitary confinement hunger strikes and the psychiatric ward to ever more determined activism Mr President How Long Must We Wait reveals the courageous near death journey it took spearheaded in no small part by Alice Paul s leadership to grant women the right to vote in America A remarkable tale Kirkus Reviews and a rousing portrait of a little known feminist heroine this is an eye opening exploration of a crucial moment in American history one century before the Women s March

The President's Legislative Policy Agenda, 1789-2002 Jeffrey E. Cohen,2012-09-10 Jeffrey E Cohen asks why US presidents send to Congress the legislative proposals that they do and what Congress does with those proposals His study covers nearly the entire history of the presidency from 1789 to 2002 The long historical scope allows Cohen to engage competing perspectives on how the presidency has developed over time He asks what accounts for the short and long term trends in presidential requests to Congress what substantive policies and issues recommendations are concerned with and what factors affect the presidential decision to submit a recommendation on a particular issue The President s Legislative Policy Agenda 1789 2002 argues that presidents often anticipate the Congressional reaction to their legislative proposals and modify their agendas accordingly Bulletin of the American Library Association American Library Association,1909
