Michael Cairns, 2005      Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1971      World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre
Irving Brown (Consulting Bibliographer), Natasha Rappaport (Bibliographer), Don Rubin (General Editor), Rosabel Wang (Consulting Bibliographer), 2013-10-11 An annotated world theatre bibliography documenting significant theatre materials published world wide since 1945 plus an index to key names throughout the six volumes of the series      General History of the Caribbean UNESCO Volume 5 NA NA, 2019-06-12 Volume 5 provides an account and interpretation of the historical development of the region from around 1930 to the end of the twentieth century Its wide ranging study of the economic political religious social and cultural history of this period brings the series to the authorial present Highlights include the turbulent thirties decolonization the turn to the left made in the 1970s by anglophone Caribbean countries the Castro Revolution and changes in social and demographic structures including ethnicity and race consciousness and the role and status of women      Books in Print, 1991      General History of the Caribbean Brereton, Bridget, Martínez-Vergne, Teresita, Römer, René A., Silvestrini, Blanca G., UNESCO, 2004-12-31 The major objective of this publication is to provide an account and interpretation of the historical development of the region from around 1930 to the end of the century Within its compass are the turbulent thirties including the Cuban Revolution of 1933 and the labour protests in the British Caribbean of 1934 the strategic position occupied by the region during the Second World War the development of proletarian movements and trade unions and their links with political parties decolonization political evolution in the French and Dutch Caribbean and the turn to the left made in the 1970s by a number of Anglophone Caribbean countries notably Grenada Also examined are the Castro Revolution and its aftermath to the 1990s ethnicity and race consciousness and their effects in uniting or dividing communities and nations international relations and regional co operation changes in social and demographic structures including the role and status of women education migration and urbanization and the beliefs and cultural experiences which underpin Caribbean identity The final chapter provides an overall survey of changes in the quality of life in the Caribbean during the twentieth century      Science Policies and Twentieth-Century Dictatorships Amparo Gómez, Antonio Fco. Canales, Brian Balmer, 2016-03-03 Making a fresh contribution to the political history of science this book explores the connections between the science policies of three countries that each experienced considerable political upheaval in the twentieth century Spain Italy and Argentina By focussing on these three countries the contributors are able to present case studies that highlight the characteristics and specificities of the democratic and dictatorial political processes involved in the production of science and technology The focus on dictatorship presents the opportunity to expand our knowledge beyond the more extensive literature about science in Nazi Germany and Stalinist USSR about the level of political involvement of scientists in non democratic contexts and to what extent they act as politicians in different contexts

Key topics covered include the new forms of organization and institutionalization of science in the twentieth century the involvement of scientific communities in the governance of science and its institutions the role of ideology in scientific development the scientific practices adopted by scientific communities in different contexts and the characteristics of science and technology produced in these contexts

Adapting Spanish Classics for the New Millennium Linda M. Willem, 2022-08-30 The twenty first century's turn away from fidelity based adaptations toward more innovative approaches has allowed adapters from Spain Argentina and the United States to draw upon Spain's rich body of nineteenth century classics to address contemporary concerns about gender sexuality race class disability celebrity immigration identity social justice and domestic violence This book provides a snapshot of visual adaptations in the first two decades of the new millennium examining how novelistic material from the past has been remediated for today's viewers through film television theater opera and the graphic novel Its theoretical approach refines the binary view of adapters as either honoring or opposing their source texts by positing three types of adaptation strategies salvaging which preserves old stories by giving them renewed life for modern audiences utilizing which draws upon a pre existing text for an alternative purpose building upon the story and creating a shift in emphasis without devaluing the source material and appropriation which involves a critique of the source text often with an attempt to dismantle its authority Special attention is given to how adapters address audiences that are familiar with the source novels and those that are not This examination of the vibrant afterlife of classic literature will be of interest to scholars and educators in the fields of adaptation media Spanish literature cultural studies performance and the graphic arts
