Drezner,2013-04-17 Winner of the Association of Fundraising Professionals 2014 Skystone Partners Research Prize in Philanthropy and Fundraising Traditionally institutions have relied on wealthy White men to reach their fundraising goals But as state investment in public higher education lessens and institutions look to philanthropy to move from excellence to eminence advancement officers continually need to engage all populations including many that have historically been excluded from fundraising strategies Based on theory research and past practice Expanding the Donor Base in Higher Education explores how colleges and universities can build culturally sensitive fundraising and engagement strategies This edited book presents emerging research on different communities that have not traditionally been approached for fundraising including Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender and Queer LGBTQ alumni African Americans Latinos graduate students young alumni women and faculty donors Chapters discuss and analyze successful programs and provide practical suggestions and strategies to create and implement fundraising programs that engage these new donor populations Expanding the Donor Base in Higher Education is an essential resource for any institution looking to expand their pool of donors and cultivate a more philanthropic mindset among alumni and students Philanthropy and Fundraising in American Higher Education, Volume 37, Number 2 Noah D. Drezner,2011-05-17 From gifts of blankets chickens and candles to multimillion dollar gifts and billion dollar campaigns voluntary support of American higher education has been part of the American ethos since the founding of the colonial colleges Peter Dobkin Hall in 1992 noted that no single force is more responsible for the emergence of the modern university in America than giving by individuals and foundations Institutions are turning to private giving to meet budgetary demands This book provides a review of the philanthropy and fundraising literature and addresses the impact of philanthropy on American higher education the theoretical under pinnings and motivations for voluntary support and a comprehensive look at the mechanics of fundraising Fundraising and Institutional Advancement Noah D. Drezner,Frances Huehls,2014-09-04 In this timely textbook authors Drezner and Huehls take the interdisciplinary complex nature of the study of philanthropy and fundraising and apply it to the field of higher education Covering issues of increasing importance to institutions including donor cultivation growth of fundraising at community colleges and minority institutions engagement of young alumni volunteerism and the competing roles of stakeholders this book helps readers apply theory to the practice of advancement in post secondary education Special Features Coverage of historical and theoretical underpinnings and insights from related literature and research Discussion of new donor populations including women communities of color the LGBTQ population students and young alumni On the ground case studies bring theories into focus by creating a bridge to experience and action Practical implications for the design of fundraising campaigns and strategies Guiding questions that encourage students to think beyond the current literature and practice This textbook bridges research theory and practice to help higher education administrators and institutions effectively negotiate the fundraising terrain and advance their institution A Future for Everyone David Maurrasse, 2004 First Published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Cultivating Diversity in Fundraising Janice Gow Pettey, 2002-02-26 An important roadmap for fundraising in today s multicultural communities Raising money in today s diverse communities is a growing challenge for fundraisers and philanthropists requiring thoughtful strategies successful collaborations and a respectful understanding of people s differences In this groundbreaking new book the author examines today s four major ethnic groups African American Asian American Hispanic Latino and Native American in terms of their diverse histories traditions and motivations and then applies this information to the proven components of successful fundraising The result is a timely and important look at how fundraisers can use an understanding of ethnic differences to create a vibrant and balanced nonprofit center through both individual and collective efforts In clear easy to understand language Cultivating Diversity in Fundraising answers the following critical questions Who are diverse donors What are their charitable traditions and interests What fundraising methods will be successful in diverse communities What can fundraisers do to include more diversity in fundraising efforts Designed as a guide to fundraising as well as a strategic update for existing fundraisers this book should be required reading for anyone working in today s nonprofit sector We Got Mojo! Raul A Deju, 2016-07-21 Thirty five of my BFF and I decided last year to write snippets of our lives reflecting on how we used our mojo to survive and thrive Many of us escaped adversity in our home countries including the genocide of the Killing Fields in Cambodia the Cuban Revolution and the brutal life in the rural mountain villages of Peru Others in my list of BFF escaped the equally harsh demons of drug addiction while others survived poverty racism war and all forms of discrimination However nothing could stop any of us in our aim to lead a successful life with no sulking None of us considered success the result of becoming rich and famous instead to us success meant bettering ourselves bettering the world innovating where we could and creating businesses such as Charles Schwab Energy Solutions Yahoo HBO MTV Nickelodeon parts of the Virgin Group and many others We have accomplished our goals through passion leadership and perseverance without sacrificing our values and we continue to do so today The book contains our stories in our own words and just like Napoleon Hill did in his famous book Think and Grow Rich in 1937 we have analyzed our life trips and derived the twenty rules that we have consciously or unconsciously followed to achieve our individual success The stories represent three dozen lifetimes of successes and failures or perhaps we should call them learning steps Through it all we have used our mojo to the max and still do so today We truly got mojo and these are our stories of inspiration and perspiration The Nonprofit Sector Walter W. Powell, Richard Steinberg, 2006-01-01 Provides a multi disciplinary survey of nonprofit organizations and their role and function in society This book also examines the nature of philanthropic behaviours and an array of organizations international issues social science theories and insight
