deliberate and aspirational decisions based on conceptions of leisure lifestyle and bodily needs Gold Fever! Rosalyn Schanzer,1999 EUREKA Gold fever swept the nation and the world in 1848 when carpenter James Marshall discovered a gold nugget in the American River near John Sutter s mill As word spread of gold in California the news set off a global race known as the California gold rush Fortune seekers and adventurers poured into California by land and sea HO FOR CALIFORNIA Here is the story of these lively prospectors in their own words Rosalyn Schanzer gathered her favorite quotes and anecdotes from letters journals and newspaper accounts then put the spirit of the age into her vibrant art GOLD GOLD Step into an exciting chapter of American history Learn about the people who dropped everything to seek their fortunes See who found gold and how and if there was enough to go around Find out what the gold diggers did with their brand new wealth Listen to the tales of the prospectors the men and the women the good and the bad the winners and the losers Join in the gold fever The New Cambridge History of American Foreign Relations William Earl Weeks,Walter LaFeber,Akira Iriye,Warren I. Cohen,2013-02-28 This new first volume proposes that the British North American colonists desire for expansion security and prosperity is the essence of American foreign relations The Gold Crusades Douglas Fetherling,George Fetherling,1997-01-01 Among the hordes of starry eyed argonauts who flocked to the California gold rush of 1849 was an Australian named Edward Hargraves He left America empty handed only to find gold in his own backyard The result was the great Australian rush of the 1850s which also attracted participants from around the world A South African named P J Marais was one of them Marais too returned home in defeat only to set in motion the diamond and gold rushes that transformed southern Africa And so it went Most previous historians of the gold rushes have tended to view them as acts of spontaneous nationalism Each country likes to see its own gold rush as the one that either shaped those that followed or epitomized all the rest In The Gold Crusades A Social History of Gold Rushes 1849 1929 Douglas Fetherling takes a different approach Fetherling argues that the gold rushes in the United States Canada Australia New Zealand and South Africa shared the same causes and results the same characters and characteristics He posits that they were in fact a single discontinuous event an expression of the British imperial experience and nineteenth century liberalism He does so with dash and style and with a sharp eye for the telling anecdote the out of the way document and the bold connection between seemingly unrelated disciplines Originally published by Macmillan of Canada 1988 Australian Dictionary of Dates and Men of the Time J.
