Ring Around the Maple Cynthia R. Comacchio,Neil Sutherland,2024-10-29 Ring Around the Maple is about the condition of children in Canada from roughly 1850 to 2000 a time during which the modern increasingly disrupted traditional ways Authors Cynthia R Comacchio and Neil Sutherland trace the lives of children over this long century with a view to synthesizing the rich interdisciplinary often multi disciplinary literature that has emerged since the 1970s Integrated into this synthesis is the authors new research into many often seemingly disparate archival and published primary sources Emphasizing how the child and childhood are sociohistoric constructs and employing age analytically and relationally they discuss the constants and the variants in their historic dimensions While childhood tangibly modernized during these years it remained a far from universal experience due to identifiers of race gender culture region and intergenerational adaptations that characterize the process of growing up This work highlights children s perspectives through close critical against the grain readings of diaries correspondence memoirs interviews oral histories and autobiographies many buried in obscure archives It is the only extant historical discussion of Canadian children that interweaves the experiences of First Nations M tis and Inuit children with those of children from a number of settler groups Ring Around the Maple makes use of photographs catalogues advertisements government publications musical recordings radio shows television shows material goods documentary and feature films and other such visual and aural testimony Much of this evidence has not to date been used as historical testimony to uncover the lives of ordinary children This book is generously illustrated with photographs and ephemera carefully selected to reflect children s lives conditions interests and obligations It will be of special interest to historians and social scientists interested in children and the culture of childhood but will also appeal to readers who enjoy the little stories that together make up our collective history especially when those are told by the children who lived them Canadian Men and Masculinities Wayne Martino, Christopher John Greig, 2012 Canadian Men and Masculinities: Historical and Contemporary Perspectives is a provocative new volume that examines men and masculinity across Canadian history and culture and sets it against the broader context of neoliberal globalization. This edited collection adopts a multi-perspective social inquiry and interdisciplinary approach and takes into careful consideration the intersections of the social and historical construction of gender with race, social class, sexuality, bodily abilities and other social justice factors. The chief aim of this book is to examine from historical and contemporary perspectives the production and performance of men, boys and embodied masculinity within the Canadian context. Within this framework Canadian Men and Masculinities explores a range of issues including modern fatherhood, black male athleticism, indigenous masculinities, wrestling and body building. This volume will be a valuable resource for general readers and professionals in sociology, history, education and social and gender studies.

Normalizing the Ideal Mona Lee Gleason, 1999-01-01 Postwar insecurity about the stability of family life became a platform to elevate the role of psychologists in society. Their ideal of normal as the healthy goal for society marginalizing and silencing those who did not fit the model. National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1992 A Diversity of Women Joy Parr, 1995-01-01 Our perception of women's roles has changed dramatically since 1945. In this collection Joy Parr has brought together ten studies from a variety of disciplines examining changing ideas about women. Mariana Valverde writes about teenage girls in the immediate postwar years and finds that stereotypes of a supposedly simple, secure, politically quiescent and sexually conformist life do not really hold. Joy Parr follows women shoppers of the early 1950s in their sometimes comical encounters with male designers, manufacturers and retailers in search of the tools and totems of modernity for their homes. Increasingly these homes were in suburban subdivisions whose pleasures and possibilities for women. Veronica Strong Boag reconsiders Joan Sangster reminds us that wage-earning mothers were numerous in the fifties and sixties and through a juxtaposition of their own stories with contemporary studies tells much about these self-denying women's lives. Franca Iacovetta discusses the experiences of immigrant and refugee women in northwestern and south-central Ontario experiences that were interpreted through their starkly different European wartime memories. Based upon her work among the rural women of southwestern Ontario, Nora Cebotarev charts the changes that transformed farm families and finances from the sixties to the eighties. Ester Reiter compares the recollections of women who had worked together during the 1960s in an auto parts plant in the Niagara Peninsula with contemporary newspaper accounts of a strike and leads us into a complex narrative of gender and militancy. Nancy Adamson reconsiders the diversity of feminist organizing within the province over the decades since second-wave feminism began; she tracks the different needs and paths that brought women to the women's liberation movement and the ways in which their feminist analysis arose from their experience as community activists. Linda Cardinal writes about Franco-Ontarian women charting the ways in which feminist activists challenged and were challenged as they worked with traditional farm and church based women s groups in northern and eastern Ontario Marlene Brant Castellano and Janice Hill introduce us to four aboriginal women Edna Manitowabi Jeannette Corbiere Lavell Sylvia Maracle and Emily Faries whose work has been to reclaim and build upon the knowledge and responsibilities long entrusted to the women of Ontario s First Nations The Guardianship of Best Interests Renée Nicole Lafferty,2013 A history of charitable children s homes and emergent state centred child welfare policy in Nova Scotia Psyche Phyllis Young,2008-10-06 A child who is the very centre of her parents life is torn away in the darkness and left to grow up in the hostile hills of the north country Recognizing that the couple who raised her have nothing more to offer she leaves with an artist who initiates her into adulthood Psyche is the gripping story of a wealthy urban mother s anguish and powerlessness when her child is kidnapped and the abandoned child s remarkable resilience as she ultimately finds redemption through art education and psychology This 1959 international bestseller by Canadian writer Phyllis Brett Young focuses on issues of character and environment in an unconventional coming of age story that draws the reader into an exploration of the decidedly modern themes of kidnapping sexual assault and the sex trade industry Book cover Boys in the Pits Robert McIntosh,2000-10-17 Boys in the Pits shows the rapid maturity of the boys and their role in resisting exploitation In what will certainly be a controversial interpretation of child labour Robert McIntosh recasts wage earning children as more than victims showing that they were individuals who responded intelligently and resourcefully to their circumstances Boys in the Pits is particularly timely as despite the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child accepted by the General assembly in 1989 child labour still occurs throughout the world and continues to generate controversy McIntosh provides an important new perspective from which to consider these debates reorienting our approach to child labour explaining rather than condemning the practice Within the broader social context of the period where the place of children was being redefined as and limited to the home school and playground he examines the role of changing technologies alternative sources of unskilled labour new divisions of labour changes in the family economy and legislation to explore the changing extent of child labour in the mines Secondary Sources in the History of Canadian Medicine Charles G. Roland,Jacques Bernier,2010-11-22 Volume Two of this retrospective bibliography is both a continuation and an expansion of Volume One 1984 It contains references to Canadian medical historical literature published between 1984 and 1998 and also includes much additional material published prior to 1984 Finally it substantially enlarges the content of French language material Every effort has been made to be as inclusive as possible of articles theses book chapters and books both in English and in French relating to the history of medicine No single electronic source can replace this bibliography The contents are divided into three sections The first is a listing of material expressly biographical Section two lists material under a wide variety of subject headings related to medicine and the third is a complete listing of the authors who have contributed these articles Simply organized and easy to use this bibliography will be of value to historians archivists librarians and anyone interested in the history of medicine Strange Journey Paul Roberts Bentley, 2021-02-02 This biographical history follows the iconoclastic career of John R Friedeberg Seeley pre eminent Pop Sociologist and Mental Health Activist of the 1950s Seeley s strange journey began as a British Home Child estranged from his cosmopolitan German Jewish family Seeley progressed through the ranks of the Canadian Army Medical Corps and the University of Chicago to achieve prominence as the author of Crestwood Heights a defining work of postwar social science He led an ambitious mental health project in Canadian schools and was a founding father of York University However Seeley s struggle with mental illness and Jewish identity brought him into conflict with the Canadian establishment His career ended in academic exile but his dream of a mental health revolution still resonates The Politics of Women's Health Susan Sherwin, Feminist Health Care Ethics Research Network, 1998 Examines the real world of women s health status and health care delivery in different countries and the assumptions behind the dominant medical model of solving problems without regard to social conditions This book asks what feminist health care ethics looks like if we start with women s experiences and concerns Born at the Right Time Doug Oram, 1997-12-15 It is rare in history for people to link their identity with their generation and even rarer when children and adolescents actually shape society and influence politics Both phenomena aptly describe the generation born in the decade following the Second World War These were the baby boomers viewed by some as the spoiled selfish generation that had it all and by others as a shock wave that made love and peace into tangible ideals In this book Doug Oram brings us the untold story of this famous generation as it played out its first twenty five years in Canadian society Beginning with Dr Spock s dictate that this particular crop of babies must be treated gently Oram explores the myth and history surrounding this group from its beginning at war s end to the close of the 1960s The baby boomers wielded extraordinary power right from birth Oram points out and laid their claim on history while still in diapers He sees the generation s power and sense of self stemming from three factors its size its affluent circumstance and its connection with the 1960s the fabulous decade of free love flower power women s liberation drugs protest marches and rock n roll From Davy Crockett hats and Barbie dolls to the civil rights movement and the sexual revolution the concerns of this single generation became predominant themes for all of society Thus Oram s history of the baby boomers is in many ways a history of the era Doug Oram has written extensively on cultural icons Utopian hopes and the gap between realities and images all powerful themes in the story of this idealistic generation A well researched lucid and humorous book Born at the Right Time is the first Canadian history of the baby boomers and the society they helped to shape Contesting Bodies and Nation in Canadian History Patrizia Gentile, Jane Nicholas, 2013-12-06 From fur coats to nude paintings and from sports to beauty contests the body has been central to the literal and figurative fashioning of ourselves as individuals and as a nation In this first collection on the history of the body in Canada an interdisciplinary group of scholars explores the multiple ways the body has served as a site of contestation in Canadian history in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries

Showcasing a variety of methodological approaches Contesting Bodies and Nation in Canadian History includes essays on many themes that engage with the larger historical relationship between the body and nation medicine and health fashion and consumer culture citizenship and work and more The contributors reflect on the intersections of bodies with the concept of nationhood as well as how understandings of the body are historically contingent The volume is capped off with a critical introductory chapter by the editors on the history of bodies and the development of the body as a category of analysis
