Nursing Ethics In Modern China Conflicting Values And Competing Role Requirements:

Nursing Ethics in Modern China Samantha Mei-che Pang, 2021-11-08 This book follows two lines of inquiry in understanding nursing ethics in the historical cultural context of modern China Firstly it scrutinizes the prescribed set of moral virtues for nurses in fulfilling their role requirements during different periods of nursing development over the past century Based on empirical studies the book secondly explores the nurses evaluations of their ethical responsibilities in current practice It carefully examines the particular viewpoints of nurses in their ethical appraisal of nursing practice and patient care situations Drawing upon traditional ethical outlooks international norms and the experiences of nurses as they face difficult care situations this book concludes with recommendations for improving the quality of nursing in contemporary China

A Contemporary Nursing Process Rozzano C. Locsin, Marguerite Purnell, Marguerite J. Purnell, 2009-04-10 This book speaks against thinking that we can only understand nursing from a traditional logical empirical approach suggesting we need a contemporary process for exploring nursing I can t agree more Journal of Christian Nursing Nurse scholars from across the globe contribute essays to this unique philosophical exploration of today s nursing This book presents an emerging view that requires nursing to look at its work through a broader and less structured lens Challenging the structure of the traditional nursing process the book considers nursing as reflective and thoughtful Doody s A Contemporary Nursing Process re envisions the practice of nursing by configuring caring in terms of the person the nurse cares for Locsin and Purnell stress the importance of knowing the patient and differentiating the person from the disease This text addresses this highly relevant issue and provides a wealth of insight on how to care for the patient on a personal level while still professionally administering clinical treatment Chapters discuss How to appreciate persons as participants in their care rather than as objects of care The ideal of care versus the practical demands of care Technological advancements shaping human life and nursing The consequences of not knowing the patient on a personal level

Hinkley II, 2005-01-01 This book addresses ethical conflicts arising from saving the lives of patients who need a transplant while treating living and dead donors organ sellers animals and embryos with proper moral regard Our challenge is to develop a better world in the light of debatable values and uncertain consequences

Essentials of Teaching and Learning in Nursing Ethics Anne Davis, Verena Tschudin, Louise Tew, 2006-02-24 This title is directed primarily towards health care professionals outside of the United States This book aims to fill a gap with an in depth exploration of nursing ethics content from the western philosophical tradition and some of the methods used in teaching this content It addresses cross cultural issues in using specific ethics content It also reveals the poverty of the present dualism model in nursing ethics and replace this with a more complex and more useful model that invites debate Its scope is both wide and deep but that is needed to enrich the basis for teaching nursing ethics Outlines and critiques all current ethical theories and considers their application to nursing practice Explores ethical issues in numerous cultures Includes case studies drawn from a range of countries Written by leading nurse educators and philosophers in the field

Ethics and Perplexity Javier Muguerza, 2022-06-08 Dialogical reason requires dialogue among the members of a community Thinkers like Habermas and Apel have proposed that judgments of both fact and value become objects of public debate The debate should determine whether these judgments can earn the assent of the community If so they attain a degree of intersubjective validity Javier Muguerza s Ethics and Perplexity makes a highly original contribution to the debate over dialogical reason The work opens with a letter that establishes a parallel between Ethics and Perplexity and Maimonides's classic Guide of the Perplexed. It concludes with an interview that repeatedly strikes sparks on Spanish philosophy's emergence from its long quarantine as Muguerza puts it. These informal pieces witty informative conversational orbit the nucleus of the work a formidable critique of dialogical reason. The result is a volume by turns vivid and profound. Muguerza insists that the experience of perplexity is inseparable from the exercise of philosophy. Perplexity is linked to aporia and wonder which the ancients identified as the origin of their activity. The only solidarity among philosophers is that of searching and philosophy is hardly more than a set of questions unceasingly posed and posed again of forever open problems of perplexities that assail us over and over again. Perplexity avoids both the certainty of dogmatism and the ignorance of skepticism. In fact it is the only philosophical ailment capable of immunizing us against both. Philosophy is always a guide to the perplexed. The series Philosophy in Spain founded to bring Spanish philosophy to the attention of English speaking philosophers seeks outstanding works by classic and contemporary Spanish thinkers as well as books on Spanish philosophy.

Death, Dying and Bereavement Cecilia Lai Wan Chan, Amy Yin Man Chow, 2006-01-01 Fear marks the boundary between the known and the unknown. Some Chinese people believe that talking about death will increase the likelihood of occurrence. Also by talking about death evil spirits will be attracted to haunt people. In facing death individual response is inevitably moulded by the values attitudes and beliefs of one's culture. Despite the large Chinese emigrant population in major cities in the world available material in English on death dying and bereavement among Chinese people is scarce. As Hong Kong is a place where East meets West most professionals working in the field of death dying and bereavement adapt knowledge from the West to their practice with the Chinese population The intention of this volume is to consolidate and disseminate valuable practical wisdom with professionals in the local and international communities who serve Chinese patients and their family members Both Editors are from the Department of Social Work and Social Administration University of Hong Kong Professor Cecilia Lai Wan Chan has done extensive research in psychosocial oncology behavioral health grief loss and bereavement Amy Yin Man Chow an Honorary Clinical Associate in the department is a registered social worker specialized in bereavement counselling
