nurses to acquire the knowledge and skill required to render quality nursing care for all common medical and surgical conditions. The contents have been made easy to understand using case studies, concept maps, critical monitoring boxes, care plans, and more. This text provides a reliable foundation in anatomy and physiology, pathophysiology, medical surgical management, and nursing care for the full spectrum of adult health conditions and is richly illustrated with flow charts, drawings, and photographs and South Asian epidemiological disease data for better understanding of the subject. Integrating Pharmacology boxes help students understand how medications are used for disease management by exploring common classifications of routinely used medications. Review questions have been added to all the units within this book. This second South Asia edition will be a valuable addition to every student nurse's bookshelf given the revisions and modifications undertaken in line with the revised Indian Nursing Council (INC) curriculum. Translating Evidence into Practice boxes, Thinking Critically questions, Integrating Pharmacology boxes, Bridge to Critical Care and Bridge to Home Health Care boxes, Feature boxes highlighting issues in Critical Monitoring, Management and Delegation boxes, Genetic Links, Terrorism Alert and Community Based Practice boxes, Physical Assessment in the Healthy Adult and Integrating Diagnostic Studies boxes, Safety Alert icons, Digital Resources available on the MedEnact website.

Nursing for Wellness in Older Adults Carol A. Miller, 2009. Now in its Fifth Edition, this text provides a comprehensive and wellness-oriented approach to the theory and practice of gerontologic nursing. Organized around the author's unique functional consequences theory of gerontologic nursing, the book explores normal age-related changes and risk factors that often interfere with optimal health and functioning to effectively identify and teach health promotion interventions. The author provides research-based background information and a variety of practical assessment and intervention strategies for use in every clinical setting. Highlights of this edition include expanded coverage of evidence-based practice, more first-person stories, new chapters, and clinical tools such as assessment tools recommended by the Hartford Institute of Geriatric Nursing.

Caring for the Older Adult Patricia O'Neill, 2002-01-01. CARING FOR THE OLDER ADULT: A HEALTH PROMOTION PERSPECTIVE is a concise, straightforward LPN/LVN textbook covering the essentials of gerontologic nursing from a strong health promotion perspective. The nature of normal aging as well as disorders common to the elderly are discussed. This resource also addresses concepts and issues related to promoting both physical and psychological health in an aging population. The engaging, easy-to-read, informal writing style draws the reader into the subject while conveying important information.

Textbook of Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nursing Debra J. Hain, Deb Bakerjian, Debra Bakerjian, 2022-02-21. I was thrilled to see content that focuses on quality improvement, patient safety, interprofessional collaboration, care coordination, and other content that supports the role of the AGNP as a clinical leader and change agent. The authors give these topics the attention that they deserve with clear, insightful guidance and, importantly, the evidence base. The chapters that address roles including during disasters, settings of care, billing, and medication use address salient issues that will help the fledgling AGNP.
