book investigates the roles played by these various diversity issues during desistance. By considering similarities and differences between desisting from crime and recovering from addiction it pushes the desistance and recovery debates in novel directions offering unique insight into experiences of change and transformation among individuals who are seeking healthier and more successful futures.

Innovative Skills to Support Well-being and Resiliency in Youth Nicole Nicotera, Julie Anne Laser-Maira, 2017. This title emphasizes the step by step procedures readers will need to implement evidence based innovative techniques and skills that emphasize well being and resilience in youth. The strategies are specifically chosen to capture and hold the interest of youth who are often reticent to counselling. Furthermore the skills based approach of the book aims to demystify what one actually does in session with youth by moving away from the vagueness of talk therapy when youth have nothing to say and toward sessions that engage youth in action stimulating communication and change.

Counting Our Losses Darcy L. Harris, 2011-01-19. This text is a valuable resource for clinicians who work with clients dealing with non death nonfinite and ambiguous losses in their lives. It explores adjustment to change transition and loss from the perspective of the latest thinking in bereavement theory and research. The specific and unique aspects of different types of loss are discussed such as infertility aging chronic illnesses and degenerative conditions divorce and separation immigration adoption loss of beliefs and loss of employment. Harris and the contributing authors consider these from an experiential perspective rather than a developmental one in order to focus on the key elements of each loss as it may be experienced at any point in the lifespan. Concepts related to adaptation and coping with loss such as resilience hardiness meaning making and the assumptive world transcendence and post traumatic growth are considered as part of the integration of loss into everyday life experience.
