Nus Dautrefois 1850 1900:

Nus d'autrefois, 1850-1900 Marcel Bovis, François Saint-Julien, 1953 Bodies of Art Marie Lathers, 2001-01-01 To the time honored myth of the artist creating works of genius in isolation with nothing but inspiration to guide him art historians have added the mitigating influences of critics dealers and the public Bodies of Art completes the picture by adding the model This lively look at atelier politics through the lens of literature focuses in particular on the female model with special attention to her race ethnicity and class The result is a suggestive account of the rise and fall of the female model in nineteenth century realism with a final emphasis on the passage of the model into photography at the turn of the century This history of the model begins in nineteenth century Paris where the artist model dynamic was regularly debated by writers and where the most important categories of models appear to be Jewish Italian and Parisian women Bodies of Art traces an evolution in the representation of this model in realist and naturalist literary works from her birth in Balzac to her death in Maupassant in the process revealing how she played a key role in theories of representation advanced by writers Throughout the book Marie Lathers connects the artist s work to the social realities and actual bodies that surround and inhabit the atelier Her work shows how much the status of the model can tell us about artistic practices during the century of the birth of modernity ARTnews ,1958 A Generous Vision Cathy Curtis, 2017-09-04 The first biography of Elaine de Kooning A Generous Vision portrays a woman whose intelligence droll sense of humor and generosity of spirit endeared her to friends and gave her a starring role in the close knit world of New York artists Her zest for adventure and freewheeling spending were as legendary as her ever present cigarette Flamboyant and witty in person she was an incisive art writer who expressed maverick opinions in a deceptively casual style As a painter she melded Abstract Expressionism with a lifelong interest in bodily movement to capture subjects as diverse as President John F Kennedy basketball players and bullfights In her romantic life she went her own way always keen for male attention But she credited her husband Willem de Kooning as her greatest influence rather than being overshadowed by his fame she worked in his light Nearly two decades after their separation after finally embracing sobriety herself she returned to his side to rescue him from severe alcoholism Based on painstaking research and dozens of interviews A Generous Vision brings to life a leading figure of twentieth century art who lived a full and fascinating life on her own terms Catalogue of the Library of the National Gallery of Canada: Mah National Gallery of Canada.
