heart the book describes the strategies and best practices employed by middle level principals who are struggling to implement the middle school concept in their schools It focuses on the seven critical themes of school leadership based on the practical experiences of real world principals and the needs of the early adolescent This is an important book for aspiring and practicing middle school principals board members teachers and parents who are intent upon building the close knit community that is at the heart of the middle school Reconceptualizing Faculty Development in

Service-Learning/Community Engagement Becca Berkey,Emily Eddins Rountree,Patrick M. Green,Cara Meixner,2023-07-03

The role of educational developer in the realm of service learning and community engagement S LCE is multidimensional Given the potentially transformational nature for both faculty and students of the experiences and courses in whose design they may be directly or indirectly involved as well as their responsibility to the communities served by these initiatives they have to be particularly attentive to issues of identity values and roles As both practitioners and facilitators they are often positioned as third space professionals This edited volume provides educational developers and community engagement professionals an analysis of approaches to faculty development around service learning and community engagement Using an openly self reflective approach the contributors to this volume offer an array of examples and models as well as realistic strategies to empower readers to evolve their faculty development efforts in service learning and community engagement on their respective campuses It is also a call for recognition that the practice of S LCE needs to be institutionalized and improved The book further addresses the field s potential contributions to scholarship such as the scholarship of teaching and learning SoTL publicly engaged scholarship and collaborative inquiry among others The case studies provide an outline of program models and promising practices including an authentic analysis of the institutional context within which they operate the positionality of the practitioner scholars overseeing them the resources required and the evidence related to both successes and challenges of these approaches The contributed chapters are organized under four themes the landscape of faculty development and community engagement models of faculty development in S LCE challenges and opportunities in pedagogy and partnerships and engendering change in educational development Residential Interventions for Children,

Adolescents, and Families Gary M. Blau,Beth Caldwell,Robert E. Lieberman,2014-06-05 Now more than ever there is a need to ensure that best practices are being used in residential programs As the focus on costs and outcomes increase residential programs must clearly demonstrate that the interventions provided are efficient and effective Readers will learn how to Create strength based empowering and healing environments Better engage and partner with children adolescents and families in meaningful ways Support those who have experienced trauma and loss and to prevent and eliminate the use of restraint and seclusion Respect and include cultural indices in practices Train mentor supervise support and empower staff about how to deliver promising and best practices and evidence informed and evidence based interventions and Track long term outcomes and create funding strategies to better support sustained positive outcomes This book encourages readers to think strategically about how agencies communities and systems can identify and implement actions that lead to positive change and how to work more collaboratively to improve the lives of children and adolescents who have experienced emotional and behavioral life challenges and their families
