Our Own Freedom:

Freedom's Right Axel Honneth, 2014-03-11 Theories of justice often fixate on purely normative abstract principles unrelated to real world situations The philosopher and theorist Axel Honneth addresses this disconnect and constructs a theory of justice derived from the normative claims of Western liberal democratic societies and anchored in morally legitimate laws and institutionally established practices Honneth's paradigm which he terms a democratic ethical life draws on the spirit of Hegel's Philosophy of Right and his own theory of recognition demonstrating how concrete social spheres generate the tenets of individual freedom and a standard for what is just Using social analysis to re-found a more grounded theory of justice he argues that all crucial actions in Western civilization whether in personal relationships market induced economic activities or the public forum of politics share one defining characteristic they require the realization of a particular aspect of individual freedom This fundamental truth informs the guiding principles of justice enabling a wide ranging reconsideration of its nature and application

The Man and Woman Manifesto Christopher Alan Anderson, 2012-09-13 A look at the foundations rights required for men and women to be free This writing is the author's socio economic statement and allows each of us to step beyond the domination and bondage of our current political systems Sovereignty is the right of each life to its own life Sovereignty for any individual is actually held in a joint balance between the two parts Balance equals a sovereignty of both parts In a sovereign relationship both parts are free to choose for each part is equal in right to the other The Man and Woman Manifesto Let the Revolution Begin Author Bio Christopher Alan Anderson 1950 received the basis of his education from the University of Science and Philosophy Swannanoa Waynesboro Virginia He resides in the transcendental romantic tradition that vein of spiritual creativity of the philosopher and poet His quest has been to define and express an eternal romantic reality from which a man and a woman could together stand in their difference and create a living universe of procreative love Mr Anderson began these writings in 1971 The first writings were published in 1985 On a personal note when Mr Anderson was asked to describe the writings and what he felt their message was he responded Spiritual procreation Mankind has yet to distinguish the two sexes on the spiritual level In this failure lies the root of our problems and why we cannot yet touch the eternal together The message of man and woman balance brings each of us together in love with our eternal other half right now keywords Sovereignty Rights Freedom Justice Revolution Liberty State Nation State

Freedom's Embrace J. Melvin Woody, 2007-04-19 To be free is to escape all limitations and obstacles or so we think at first But if we probe further we discover that freedom embraces its own necessities a set of conditions without which it could not exist Freedom's Embrace explores these necessities of freedom J Melvin Woody surveys competing conceptions of freedom and traces debates about the nature and reality of freedom to confusions about knowledge humanity and nature that are rooted in some of the most fundamental assumptions of modern Western thought The preemption of freedom as an exclusively human privilege with all nature relegated to mechanical necessity is a fatal error that renders both humanity and nature equally unintelligible What distinguishes human beings from other animals is not freedom but the use of symbols which vastly extends the range of available options and enables us to envision freedom as an ideal by which customary institutions and norms may be judged and transformed By carefully surveying its necessary conditions and limitations Woody reconciles the salient competing conceptions of freedom and weaves them together into a richer and broader theory that resolves old controversies and opens the way toward an ethics of freedom that can meet the challenges of relativism and nihilism that arise from recognizing the historicity and malleability of culture JUST MINISTRY Richard M. Gula, 2010 At a time when concerns for misconduct abuse scandals and liability have brought pastoral ministers under greater scrutiny than ever before and have threatened to undermine their morale Just Ministry offers a positive perspective on the vocation of pastoral ministry and wise ethical guidance to foster integrity in ministry This is a helpful training and evaluative resource for those involved in pastoral ministry as ordained clergy religious or lay ministers Key concepts are illustrated through case studies and practical strategies for acquiring and developing virtues as well as preventative education for pastoral ministry in avoiding misconduct Official Gazette Philippines, 1973 The Department of State Bulletin, 1984 Motivation in Organisations Manuel Guillen, 2020-11-10 Motivation in Organisations Searching for a Meaningful Work Life Balance extends the current motivation models in business education to include motives of human behaviour that have been neglected for decades It debunks some of the myths about human motivation self interest as the dominant factor amorality and non spirituality and explains why this approach to teaching business is erroneous and leads to wrong and harmful practices in many organisations In a very personal and engaging style the author presents a map of motivations based on a humanistic approach to management This includes the latest findings of Abraham H Maslow supported by sound philosophical reflections and modern research He also presents specific ways of putting the framework into practice sharing stories from students and professionals of how this framework has helped them better understand their own motivations and look at their daily work in a much more meaningful way The book is highly relevant to students and researchers in humanistic management people management organisational behaviour business ethics corporate social responsibility and sustainability In short this text will be truly inspiring to anyone who wants to reflect on motivations in organisations and how to achieve a better work life balance American Foreign Policy, Current Documents, 1968

Existentialism Thomas E. Wartenberg, 2008-08-01 A lively introduction to this celebrated philosophical tradition Existentialism pervades modern culture yet if you ask most people what it means they won't be able to tell you In this lively and topical introduction Wartenberg reveals a vibrant mode of philosophical inquiry that addresses concerns at the heart of the existence of every human being Wartenberg uses classic films novels and plays to present the ideas of now legendary Existentialist thinkers from Nietzsche and Camus to Sartre and Heidegger and to explore central concepts including Freedom Anxiety and the Absurd Special attention is paid to the views of Simone de Beauvoir and Franz Fanon who use the theories of Existentialism to address gender and colonial oppression

The Anti-Pelagian Writings

St. Augustine of Hippo, Both by nature and by grace Augustin was formed to be the champion of truth in this controversy Of a naturally philosophical temperament he saw into the springs of life with a vividness of mental perception to which most men are strangers and his own experiences in his long life of resistance to and then of yielding to the drawings of God s grace gave him a clear apprehension of the great evangelic principle that God seeks men not men God such as no sophistry could cloud However much his philosophy or theology might undergo change in other particulars there was one conviction too deeply imprinted upon his heart ever to fade or alter the conviction of the ineffableness of God s grace This book comprises St Augustine s writings and thoughts regarding the Anti Pelagian dispute

Callings

William C. Placher, 2005-07-26 What am I going to do with my life is a question that young people commonly face while many not so young people continue to wonder about finding direction and purpose in their lives Whether such purpose has to do with what job to take whether to get married or how to incorporate religious faith into the texture of their lives Christians down the centuries have believed that God has plans for them This unprecedented anthology gathers select passages on work and vocation from the greatest writers in Christian history William Placher has written insightful introductions to accompany the selections an introduction to each of the four main historical sections and a brief introduction to each reading While the vocational questions faced by Christians have changed through the centuries this book demonstrates how the distilled wisdom of these saints preachers theologians and teachers remains relevant to Christians today This rich resource is to be followed by a companion volume edited by Mark R Schwehn and Dorothy C Bass featuring texts drawn mainly from fiction memoir poetry and other forms of literature A study guide is available from Programs for the Theological Exploration of Vocation PTEV on their website www.ptev.org

Motherhood - Philosophy

for Everyone Sheila Lintott, 2011-03-14 MOTHERHOOD PHILOSOPHY FOR EVERYONE If you have ever wondered what makes a good or a bad mother or if mothers are always right in thinking their babies are beautiful or indeed whether mother always knows best look no further Without a single nag Motherhood Philosophy for Everyone covers these salient philosophical issues and more including The anticipation of impending parenthood compared with the reality Should we tell the occasional lie to our children What does the Bible actually say about the virgin birth If we were able to turn our children off would and should we be tempted by this option The experience of lesbian mothering The unexpected challenges and complications of being a mother As in any group of thinkers some mothers are more ambitiously reflective than others either out of temperamental thoughtfulness moral and political concerns or most often because they have serious problems with their children However maternal thinking is no rarity Maternal work itself demands that mothers think From Maternal Thinking Toward A Politics of Peace Sara Ruddick Beyond Secular Faith Mátyás Szalay,2023-01-19 Attempts to reach an understanding of how to live a Christian life in the contemporary context have never been more necessary This is the aim of the International Symposium Beyond Secular Faith an annual conference held in Granada Spain This volume represents the fruits of over seven years of scholarship The title Beyond Secular Faith suggests we are interested in re discovering and reflectively elaborating ways to overcome the limits imposed by the dominant contemporary culture We are convinced that only a faith liberated from the conceptual restrictions and reductions put forward by secular philosophy and theology and centered radically on Christ can flourish in the dimension that is proper to faith that is in all spheres of human life Featuring contributions from internationally recognized philosophers and theologians such as Tracey Rowland Jaros aw Jagiello Rocco Buttiglione Alison Milbank Massimo Borghesi John Milbank and others we will explore a diversity of questions from this common perspective the light of revelation illuminates how Christians should live in the modern world leading to a new beginning Public Papers of the Presidents of the United States United States. President,1978 Purpose in the Universe Tim Mulgan,2015 Two familiar worldviews dominate Western philosophy materialist atheism and the benevolent God of the Abrahamic faiths Tim Mulgan defends a third way Ananthropocentric Purposivism claims that there is a cosmic purpose but human beings are irrelevant to it He argues that non human centred cosmic purpose can ground a distinctive human morality

The Violence of Love Romero, Oscar,2021-02-01 These selections from the sermons and writings of Archbishop Oscar Romero shared the message of a great holy prophet of modern times Three short years transformed Romero archbishop of San Salvador from a conservative defender of the status quo into one of the church s most outspoken voices of the oppressed Though silenced by an assassin s bullet his spirit and the challenge of his life lives on Congressional Record United States. Congress,1981 Philosophy: Key Texts J. Baggini,2016-03-02 Designed for complete beginners Philosophy Key Texts is an introduction to philosophy and gives a clear readable overview of some of the major texts by Plato Descartes Hume Sartre Mill and Nietzsche
