An Injury to All Kim Moody,2016-02-23 Over the past decade American labor has faced a tidal wave of wage cuts plant closures and broken strikes In this first comprehensive history of the labor movement from Truman to Reagan Kim Moody shows how the AFL CIO

s conservative ideology of business unionism effectively disarmed unions in the face of a domestic right turn and an epochal shift to globalized production Eschewing alliances with new social forces in favor of its old Cold War liaisons and illusory compacts with big business the AFL CIO under George Meany and Lane Kirkland has been forced to surrender many of its post war gains With extraordinary attention to the viewpoints of rank and file workers Moody chronicles the major but largely unreported efforts of labor s grassroots to find its way out of the crisis In case studies of auto steel meatpacking and trucking he traces the rise of anti concession movements and in other case studies describes the formidable obstacles to the organization of the unorganized in the service sector A detailed analysis of the Rainbow Coalition s potential to unite labor with other progressive groups follows together with a pathbreaking consideration of the possibilities of a new labor internationalism

Beyond Comfort Zones in Multiculturalism Sandra Jackson, Jose Solis, 1995-10-24 For peoples whose legal agreements treaties and other accords and conventions with the United States have been violated multiculturalism as a pedagogical tool often becomes suspect of reinforcing the continued reification and abstraction of their cultures and nations with little if any real meaning for educational and social transformation The continued oppression and repression of the exercise of self determination for African Americans the persistence of policies aimed at the destruction of indigenous populations and land the insidious continuation of classical colonialism in the case of Puerto Rico are all vivid reminders to these peoples of the racist classist sexist and homophobic patriarchy that characterizes their status In order to restore people s rights to fully determine their own histories Jackson and Solis point out that it is imperative to destroy the material foundations that breed and recycle the ideology discourse and cultural practices of domination It is not enough to celebrate diversity and difference there must be grand scale social political economic and educational transformation
