Introduction to African American Studies Talmadge Anderson, James Benjamin Stewart, 2007 There is an ongoing debate as to whether African American Studies is a discipline or multidisciplinary or interdisciplinary field Some scholars assert that African American Studies use a well defined common approach in examining history politics and the family in the same way as scholars in the disciplines of economics sociology and political science Other scholars consider African American Studies multidisciplinary a field somewhat comparable to the field of education in which scholars employ a variety of disciplinary lenses be they anthropological psychological historical etc to study the African world experience In this model the boundaries between traditional disciplines are accepted and researches in African American Studies simply conduct discipline based an analysis of particular topics Finally another group of scholars insists that African American Studies is interdisciplinary an enterprise that generates distinctive analyses by combining perspectives from d

Handbook of Multicultural Perspectives on Stress and Coping Paul T. P. Wong, Lilian C. J. Wong, 2007-02-15 Has the developing world developed modern concepts of stress Are coping methods the same around the globe Such questions are not simple to answer and until recently few knew to ask them In recent years Western psychologists have recognized that their prevailing views of psychology do not always translate worldwide and that no culture has a monopoly on either stress or coping The Handbook of Multicultural Perspectives on Stress and Coping was created to address this realization This unique volume moves beyond simple comparisons of behaviors in other countries by clarifying critical concepts in stress and coping analyzing and synthesizing vast amounts of global data and identifying constructs and methodologies necessary for meaningful cross cultural research An international multiethnic panel of forty five contributors presents elegant studies of stress survival and resilience as cultures evolve and countries interact including Personal transformation as a coping strategy Psychological skills that enhance intercultural adjustment Individual versus collectivist values in coping Buddhist and Taoist traditions in coping The cumulative effects of historical environmental and political stressors on nations in the Middle East Specific cross cultural perspectives from Latino American families to Canadian aboriginal peoples to minority university students The editors have assembled a vital store of knowledge raising crucial implications for clinicians working with immigrant international populations and evaluating the current state of theory research and assessment The Handbook documents major steps toward scientific advancement and human understanding
