Public Enemies Public Heroes Screening The Gangster From Little Caesar To Touch Of Evil:

Public Enemies, Public Heroes Jonathan Munby, 1999-03-15 In this study of Hollywood gangster films Jonathan Munby examines their controversial content and how it was subjected to continual moral and political censure Beginning in the early 1930s these films told compelling stories about ethnic urban lower class desires to make it in an America dominated by Anglo Saxon Protestant ideals and devastated by the Great Depression By the late 1940s however their focus shifted to the problems of a culture maladjusting to a new peacetime sociopolitical order governed by corporate capitalism The gangster no longer challenged the establishment the issue was not making it but simply making do Combining film analysis with archival material from the Production Code Administration Hollywood's self censoring authority Munby shows how the industry circumvented censure and how its altered gangsters influenced by European filmmakers fueled the infamous inquisitions of Hollywood in the postwar 40s and 50s by the House Committee on Un American Activities Ultimately this provocative study suggests that we rethink our ideas about crime and violence in depictions of Americans fighting against the status quo

Roman Catholicism in the United States Margaret M. McGuinness, James T. Fisher, 2019-02-05 A collection of essays providing an extensive history of Catholicism in America from numerous perspectives Roman Catholicism in the United States A Thematic History takes the reader beyond the traditional ways scholars have viewed and recounted the story of the Catholic Church in America The collection covers unfamiliar topics such as anti Catholicism rural Catholicism Latino Catholics and issues related to the establishment of diplomatic relations between the Vatican and the US government The book continues with fascinating discussions on popular culture film and literature women religious and the work of US missionaries in other countries The final section of the book is devoted to Catholic social teaching tackling challenging and sometimes controversial subjects such as the relationship between African American Catholics and the Communist Party Catholics in the civil rights movement the abortion debate issues of war and peace and Vatican II and the American Catholic Church Roman Catholicism in the United States examines the history of US Catholicism from a variety of perspectives that transcend the familiar account of the immigrant urban parish which served as the focus for so many American Catholics during the nineteenth and first half of the twentieth centuries Praise for Roman Catholicism in the United States All of the essays are informative and written in a style suitable to both novices and scholars of American Catholic history Choice Any scholar currently writing books or articles on American Catholic history would do well to pick up this volume American Catholic Studies I've seen the future of American Catholic studies and it is in this superb collection of consistently engaging provocative and well written essays This is now required reading for scholars and students of the Catholic experience in the United States Mark Massa S J Director The Boisi Center for Religion and American Public Life Boston College Dying to Belong Martha P. Nochimson, 2007-05-21 This fascinating book begins with a new definition of the gangster film and a challenging exploration of the Hong Kong and Hollywood screen traditions Illuminates the way gangster films deal with the ambiguities of modern life correcting the notion that this genre is inconsequential sensationalism

Contents that both American and Hong Kong gangster films are against the grain reactions to the central fable of modern democracies that promise immigrant and other outsiders that they can become social insiders

Clarifies crucial and fascinating differences between American and Hong Kong approaches to enjoining the discussion of immigrant histories by placing them in counterpoint with each other

Draws on a range of American films ranging from Public Enemy and Scarface to Gangs of New York Goodfellas and The Godfather

Explores a number of Hong Kong's 21st century gangster films including Andrew Lau's great trilogy Infernal Affairs and Election and Election 2 directed by Hong Kong auteur Johnnie To

Concludes with an exclusive interview with The Sopranos creator David Chase

Men & Masculinities Michael S. Kimmel, Amy B. Aronson, 2003-12-11

The first encyclopedia to analyze summarize and explain the complexities of men's lives and the idea of modern manhood

The process of making masculinity visible has been going on for over two decades and has produced a prodigious and interesting body of work

But until now the subject has had no authoritative reference source

Men Masculinities a pioneering two volume work corrects the oversight by summarizing the latest historical biological cross cultural psychological and sociological research on the subject

It also looks at literature art and music from a gender perspective

The contributors are experts in their specialties and their work is directed organized and coedited by one of the premier scholars in the field

Michael Kimmel The coverage brings together for the first time considerable knowledge of men and manhood focusing on such areas as sexual violence intimacy pornography homophobia sports profeminist men rituals sexism and many other important subjects

Clearly this unique reference is a valuable guide to students teachers writers policymakers journalists and others who seek a fuller understanding of gender in the United States

The Introspective Realist Crime Film Luis M. García-Mainar, 2016-06-10

This book explores the formal and thematic conventions of crime film the contexts in which these have flourished and their links with the social issues of a globalized world

The crime film has traditionally been identified with suspense a heterogeneous aesthetic and a tacit social mind

However a good number of the crime films produced since the early 2000s have shifted their focus from action or suspense and towards melodrama in narratives that highlight the social dimension of crime intensify their realist aesthetics and dwell on subjectivity

With the 1940s wave of Hollywood semi documentary crime films and 1970s generic revisionism as antecedents these crime films find inspiration in Hollywood cinema and constitute a transnational trend

With a close look at Steven Soderbergh's Traffic 2000 David Fincher's Zodiac 2007 Jacques Audiard's Un prophète 2009 and Tomas Alfredson's Tinker Tailor Soldier Spy 2011 this book sets out the stylistic and thematic conventions contexts and cultural significance of a new transnational trend in crime film

Mervyn LeRoy Comes to Town Murray Pomerance, R. Barton Palmer, 2025-05-13

Mervyn LeRoy Comes to Town is the first book devoted to the career of one of the director producers who in the early years of sound cinema was instrumental in establishing the Hollywood model of production that would endure for more than half a century

As a director and producer

LeRoy was responsible for turning out more than sixty feature films in a career that spanned five decades as a studio executive he contributed substantially to the success of the industry during the challenging period of the Depression and also in the period of realignment and readjustment that followed the end of World War II This book offers chapters devoted to individual films such as Little Caesar Waterloo Bridge 30 Seconds over Tokyo Gypsy and Quo Vadis The Spaces of the Modern City Gyan Prakash, Kevin M. Kruse, 2008-02-24 It historicizes the contemporary discussion of urbanism highlighting the local and global breadth of the city landscape This interdisciplinary collection examines how the city develops in the interactions of space and imagination The essays focus on issues such as street design in Vienna the motion picture industry in Los Angeles architecture in Marseilles and Algiers and the kaleidoscopic paradox of post apartheid Johannesburg They explore the nature of spatial politics examining the disparate worlds of eighteenth century Baghdad nineteenth century Morelia They also show the meaning of everyday spaces to urban life illuminating issues such as crime in metropolitan London youth culture in Dakar memory projects in Tokyo and Bombay cinema Health Education Films in the Twentieth Century Christian Bonah, 2018 In 1949 the U S National Cancer Institute NCI and the Canadian Department of National Health and Welfare DNHW commissioned a film eventually called Challenge Science Against Cancer as part of a major effort to recruit young scientists into cancer research Both organizations feared that poor recruitment would stifle the development of the field at a time when funding for research was growing dramatically The fear was that there would not be enough new young scientists to meet the demand and that the shortfall would undermine cancer research and the hopes invested in it Challenge aimed to persuade young scientists to think of cancer research as a career This book is the story of that forgotten film and what it tells us about mid twentieth century American and Canadian cancer research educational filmmaking and health education campaigns It explores why Canadian and American health agencies turned to film to address the problem of scientist recruitment how filmmakers turned such recruitment concerns into something they thought would work as a film and how information officers at the NCI and DNHW sought to shape the impact of Challenge by embedding it in a broader educational and propaganda program It is in short an account of the important but hitherto undocumented roles of filmmakers and information officers in the promotion of post Second World War cancer research Mafia Movies Dana Renga, 2019-07-05 The mafia has always fascinated filmmakers and television producers Al Capone Salvatore Giuliano Lucky Luciano Ciro Di Marzio Roberto Saviano Don Vito and Michael Corleone and Tony Soprano are some of the historical and fictional figures that contribute to the myth of the Italian and Italian American mafias perpetuated onscreen This collection looks at mafia movies and television over time and across cultures from the early classics to the Godfather trilogy and contemporary Italian films and television series The only comprehensive collection of its type Mafia Movies treats over fifty films and TV shows created since 1906 while introducing Italian and Italian American mafia history and culture The second edition includes new original essays on essential films and TV shows that have emerged since the publication of the first edition such as Boardwalk Empire and Mob Wives as well as a new roundtable section on Italy's other mafias in film and television written as a collaborative essay by more than ten scholars. The edition also introduces a new section called Double Takes that elaborates on some of the most popular mafia films and TV shows e.g. The Godfather and The Sopranos organized around themes such as adaptation, gender and politics, urban spaces and performance and stardom.

Catholics in the Movies Colleen McDannell, 2008. The common admission that everything I know about religion I learned from the movies is true for believers as much as for unbelievers. And at the movies, Catholicism is the American religion. As an intensely visual faith with a well-defined ritual and authority structure, Catholicism lends itself to the drama and pageantry of film. Beginning with the silent era of film and ending with movies today, eleven prominent scholars explore how Catholic characters, spaces and rituals are represented in cinema.
