The Raddle Moon ,      The Only Poetry That Matters Clint Burnham,2012-05-15 A thought provoking history of the internationally renowned language poetry group the Kootenay School of Writing      Antiphonies Nate Dorward,2008 Cultural Writing Literary Criticism ANTIPHONIES is a primer on some of the most exciting work in contemporary Canadian poetry These essays discuss a wide range of work from books already acclaimed as modern classics such as Erin Moure's O Cidadan Lisa Robertson's DEBBIE AN EPIC and Karen MacCormack's IMPLEXURES to the equally remarkable work of Susan Clark Catriona Strang Lissa Wolsak Christine Stewart Deanna Ferguson Lise Downe Nancy Shaw a rawlings Marie Annharte Baker and others The essays are complemented by brief selections of poems and poetics statements      Provisional Avant-Gardes Sophie Seita,2019-07-23 What would it mean to be avant garde today Arguing against the notion that the avant garde is dead or confined to historically failed movements this book offers a more dynamic and inclusive theory of avant gardes that accounts for how they work in our present Innovative in approach Provisional Avant Gardes focuses on the medium of the little magazine from early Dada experiments to feminist queer and digital publishing networks to understand avant gardes as provisional and heterogeneous communities Paying particular attention to neglected women writers artists and editors alongside more canonical figures it shows how the study of little magazines can change our views of literary and art history while shedding new light on individual careers By focusing on the avant garde's publishing history and group dynamics Sophie Seita also demonstrates a new methodology for writing about avant garde practice across time one that is applicable to other artistic and non artistic communities and that speaks to contemporary practitioners as much as scholars In the process she addresses fundamental questions about the intersections of aesthetic form and politics and about what we consider to be literature and art      Poetry Matters Heather Milne,2018-05-15 Poetry Matters explores poetry written by women from the United States and Canada which documents the social and political turmoil of the early twenty first century and places this poetry in dialogue with recent currents of feminist theory including new materialism affect theory posthumanism and feminist engagements with neoliberalism and capitalism Central to this project is the conviction that a poetics that explores the political dimensions of affect demonstrates an understanding of subjectivity as posthuman and transcorpo critically reflects on the impact of capitalism on queer racialized and female bodies and develops an ethical vocabulary for reimagining the nation state and critically engaging with issues of democracy and citizenship is now more urgent than ever before Milne focuses on poetry published after 2001 by writers who mostly began writing after the feminist writing movements of the 1980s but who have inherited and built upon their political and aesthetic legacies The poets discussed in this book including Jennifer Scappettone Margaret Christakos Larissa Lai Rita Wong Nikki Reimer Rachel Zolf Yedda Morrison Marcella Durand Evelyn Reilly Juliana Spahr Claudia Rankine Dionne Brand Jena Osman and Jen Benka bring a sense of political agency to poetry These voices seek new vocabularies and dissenting critical and aesthetic frameworks for thinking across issues of gender materiality capitalism the toxic convergences of nationalism and racism and the decline of democratic institutions This is poetry that matters both in its political urgency and in its attentiveness to the world as matter as a material entity under siege It could not be more timely or more relevant Ten to One Bob Perelman,1999-10 The first selected poems from one of the most inventive poets writing today "That Tongue Be Time" Dale M. Smith,2025-06-03 Originally from Canada Norma Cole is a revered writer and visual artist who has authored and translated over thirty books and chapbooks Though highly esteemed internationally in both visual art and poetry circles Cole's association with the New College of California and her influence on artists and poets has been overlooked by scholars In That Tongue Be Time Dale M Smith seeks to remedy this oversight by bringing together sixteen noted scholars editors and poets to examine Cole's poetry translations and visual art in order to place her within the larger scholarly conversation about contemporary poetry and poetics The book also includes a number of black and white reproductions of Cole's art and a contextual introduction by Smith That Tongue Be Time provides a groundbreaking look at Norma Cole's lasting influence on multiple generations of poets visual artists and scholars and should be on the shelf of anyone interested in contemporary poetry Eleven More American Women Poets in the 21st Century Claudia Rankine,Lisa Sewell,2012-01-01 A fine and selective anthology that's also a critical introduction to some of the most provocative and some of the most original poetry out there Stephanie Burt author of Don't Read Poetry A Book About How to Read Poems The American Poets in the 21st Century series continues with another anthology focused on female poets Like the earlier books this volume includes generous selections of poetry by some of the best poets of our time as well as illuminating poetics statements and incisive essays on their work This unique organization makes these books invaluable teaching tools Broadening the lens through which we look at contemporary poetry this new volume extends its geographical net by including Caribbean and Canadian poets Representing three generations of women writers among the insightful pieces included in this volume are essays by Karla Kelsey on Mary Jo Bang's modes of artifice Christine Hume on Carla Harryman's kinds of listening Dawn Lundy Martin on M. The Unnaming of Aliass Karin Bolender,2020 The Unnaming of Aliass performs a paradoxical quest for wildly untold stories in the company of one special donkey companion a femammal of the species Equus asinus and significantly a registered American Spotted Ass Beast of burden that she is this inscrutable companion helped carry a ridiculous load of human longings and quandaries into a maze of hot harrowing miles across the US South from Mississippi to Virginia in the summer of 2002 all the while carrying her own onerous and unreckoned burdens and histories Over two decades the original journey evolved from the cracking open of a quasi Western novel that never was by an implosive pun into an ongoing philosophical and assthetic adventure a hybrid roadside and barnyard based living art practice wherein Aliass un names something much harder to grasp than the body of a lovely little ass protagonist setting and traditional Western narratives turn inside out around this name that ain't Through a deeply dug in questioning of its own authorial assumptions The Unnaming of Aliass makes space for untold autobiographies and bright dusty lacunae tracing ineffable tales through the tangled shapes and shadows that interweave in any environment Writing between the Lines Agnes Whitfield,2006-03-03 The essays in Writing between the Lines explore the lives of twelve of Canada's most eminent anglophone literary translators and delve into how these individuals have contributed to the valuable process of literary exchange between francophone and anglophone literatures in Canada Through individual portraits this book traces the events and life experiences that have led W H Blake John Glassco Philip Stratford Joyce Marshall Patricia Claxton Doug Jones Sheila Fischman Ray Ellenwood Barbara

Romanticism and Postmodernism Edward Larrissy, 1999-08-28 The persistence of Romantic thought and literary practice into the late twentieth century is evident in many contexts from the philosophical and ideological abstractions of literary theory to the thematic and formal preoccupations of contemporary fiction and poetry Though the precise meaning of the Romantic legacy is contested it remains stubbornly difficult to move beyond This collection of essays by prominent critics and literary theorists was first published in 1999 and explores the continuing impact of Romanticism on a variety of authors and genres including John Barth William Gibson and John Ashbery while writers from the Romantic and Victorian period include Wordsworth Byron and Emily Brontë Many critics have assumed that the forms and modes of feeling associated with the Romantic period continued to influence the cultural history of the first half of the twentieth century This was the first book to consider the mutual impact of postmodernism and Romanticism
