

Of Man's first disobedience, and the fruit
Of that forbidden tree whose mortal taste
Brought death into the World, and all our woe,
With loss of Eden, till one greater Man
Restore us, and regain the blissful seat,
Sing, Heavenly Muse, that, on the secret top
Of Oreb, or of Sinai, didst inspire
That shepherd who first taught the chosen seed
In the beginning how the heavens and earth
Rose out of Chaos: or, if Sion hill
Delight thee more, and Siloa's brook that flowed Fast by the oracle of God, I thence Invoke thy aid to my adventurous song,
That with no middle flight intends to soar
Above the Aonian mount, while it pursues
Things unattempted yet in prose or rhyme.

Radi Os Ronald Johnson, 2005-04-30 First published in 1977 Ronald Johnson's RADI OS revises the first four books of Paradise Lost by excising words discovering a modern and visionary poem within the seventeenth century text As the author explains To etch is to cut away and each page as in Blake's concept of a book is a single picture With God and Satan crossed out RADI OS reduces Milton's Baroque poem to elemental forces In this retelling of the Fall song precipitates from chaos sight from fire in the shape as of above the rose through rose rising the radiant sun Contracubierta Combined Subject and Author Indexes to Radiobiology Bibliographies U.S. Atomic Energy Commission. Division of Technical Information, 1967 Radios Danny Snelson, 2016-10-20 Poetry RADIOS uses every word and punctuation mark in Ronald Johnson's RADI OS 1977 in the endeavor to recompose John Milton's Paradise Lost 1674 Wherever he composed the holes I filled them in Nothing is erased everything is lost Danny Snelson Emergent Poetics Travis W. Matteson, 2024-11-12 This book proposes the term emergent poetics to synthesize two divergent strands in contemporary literary media theory the media archaeology of material inscriptions and the systems view of media ecology which considers media as complex nodes of exchange Emergent poetics emphasizes the speculative non prosthetic quality of media the anthrodecentric perspective that media do not simply extend human senses but instead consist of properties that exceed human apprehension This study builds on Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick's theory of reparative reading contemporary media theory and Bruno Latour's Actor Network Theory which are united in their skepticism regarding the paranoid unveiling gesture of institutional critique their emphasis on methodology rather than theoretical ideology and their insistence on assembling rather than deconstructing In response to these three trends this project begins by attending to what Jerome McGann calls the bibliographic code material forms while simultaneously expanding this medium specific perspective by situating written works within their broader media ecosystems tracing interactions among media humans and nonhumans The Unsignificant Srikanth Reddy, 2024-09-17 The Unsignificant Three Talks on Poetry and Pictures is a selection of lectures that poet and Griffin Award finalist Srikanth Reddy presented for the Bagley Wright Lecture Series in 2015 True to its title The Unsignificant is concerned with what it's not about not the logical proofs of philosophy but the affective flux of poetry The lectures approach poetry from Homer to Gertrude Stein to Ronald Johnson obliquely refracted through images such as Brueghel's Landscape with Fall of Icarus Hermann Rorschach's inkblots or Galileo's drawings of the moon Ranging from pictorial backgrounds in visual art to portraiture and similes to the poetics of wonder The Unsignificant embarks on an unsystematic errant and eccentric tour of Western poetry and poetics from the ancient world to our continuous present This Is Not a Copy Kaja Marczewska, 2018-02-22 In This Is Not a Copy Kaja Marczewska identifies a characteristic copy paste tendency in contemporary culture a shift in attitude that allows reproduction and plagiarizing to become a norm in cultural production This inclination can be observed in literature and non literary forms of writing at an unprecedented level as experiments with text redefine the nature of creativity Responding to these transformations Marczewska argues that we must radically rethink our conceptions of artistic practice and proposes a move away from the familiar categories of copying and originality creativity and plagiarism in favour of the notion of iteration Developing the new concept of the Iterative Turn This Is Not a Copy identifies and theorizes the turn toward ubiquitous iteration as a condition of text based creative practices as they emerge in response to contemporary technologies Conceiving of writing as iterative invites us to address a set of new critical questions about contemporary culture Combining discussion of literature experimental and electronic writing mainstream and independent publishing with debates in 20th and 21st century art contemporary media culture transforming technologies and copyright laws This Is Not a Copy offers a timely and urgently needed argument introducing a unique new perspective on practices that permeate our contemporary culture

Ronald Johnson's Modernist Collage Poetry R. Hair, 2010-12-20 Using a critical examination of the collage poetics of Ronald Johnson this book sets out to understand Johnson's poetry in the context of the New American collage tradition stretching from Ezra Pound to Louis Zukofsky and beyond Additionally the book assesses Johnson's work in relation to wider questions concerning literary chronologies especially the discontinuities commonly seen to exist between nineteenth century Romantic and twentieth century modernist literary forms Signal

, 1988 The Darkness of the Present Steve McCaffery, 2012-11-19 The Darkness of the Present includes essays that collectively investigate the roles of anomaly and anachronism as they work to unsettle commonplace notions of the contemporary in the field of poetics In the eleven essays of The Darkness of the Present poet and critic Steve McCaffery argues that by approaching the past and the present as unified entities the contemporary is made historical at the same time as the historical is made contemporary McCaffery's writings work against the urge to classify works by placing them in standard literary periods or disciplinary partitions Instead McCaffery offers a variety of insights into unusual and ingenious affiliations between poetic works that may have previously seemed distinctive He questions the usual associations of originality and precedence In the process he repositions many texts within genealogies separate from the ones to which they are traditionally assigned The chapters in The Darkness of the Present might seem to present an eclectic fa ade and can certainly be read independently They are linked however by a common preoccupation reflected in the title of the book the anomaly and the anachronism and the way their empirical emergence works to unsettle a steady notion of the contemporary or new

Imagining Language Jed Rasula, Steve McCaffery, 2001 When works such as Joyce's Finnegans Wake and Stein's Tender Buttons were first introduced they went so far beyond prevailing linguistic standards that they were widely considered unreadable if not scandalous Jed Rasula and Steve McCaffery take these and other examples of twentieth century avant garde writing as the starting point for a collection of writings that demonstrates a continuum of creative conjecture on language from antiquity to the present The anthology which spans three millennia generally bypasses chronology in order to illuminate unexpected congruities between seemingly discordant materials Together the writings celebrate the scope and

The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
