Wheeler, 2005 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature      War Narratives in Post-Conflict Societies Michal Mochtak, 2024-02-29 This book studies war narratives and their role in the political arenas of post conflict societies with a focus on the former Yugoslavia How do politicians in postwar societies talk about the past war How do they discursively represent vulnerable social groups created by the conflict Does the nature of this representation depend on the politicians ideology personal characteristics or their record of combat service The book answers these questions by pairing natural language processing tools and large corpora of parliamentary debates collected in three southeast European post conflict societies Bosnia Herzegovina Croatia and Serbia Using the latest advances in computer science the book explores patterns in the war discourse of the political elites of these countries and discusses how politicians talk about war in terms of common narratives and shared frameworks Mapping over 20 years of parliamentary debates the book presents a new perspective on the role of the legacies of war in public space and develops theoretical arguments about reconciliation in post conflict societies The wars of the 1990s and the breakup of Yugoslavia have created three totally different settings for remembering the past conflicts in these countries despite their common history It is a story of victorious battles Croatia past grievances Bosnia Herzegovina and denial Serbia showing the different flavors of past wars in various national contexts that are symptomatic of many post conflict societies in different parts of the world This book will be of much interest to students of war and conflict studies southeastern European politics discourse analysis and international relations      Children's

Publishing and Black Britain, 1965-2015 Karen Sands-O'Connor, 2017-06-23 This book examines a critical period in British children's publishing from the earliest days of dedicated publishing firms for Black British audiences to the beginnings of the Black Lives Matter movement in the UK Taking a historical approach that includes education acts Black protest community publishing and children's literature prizes the study investigates the motivation behind both independent and mainstream publishing firm decisions to produce books for a specifically Black British audience Beginning with a consideration of early reading schemes that incorporated Black and Asian characters the book continues with a history of one of the earliest presses to publish for children Bogle L Ouverture Other chapters look at the influence of community based and independent presses the era of multiculturalism and anti racism the effect of racially motivated violence on children's publishing and the dubious benefit of awards for Black British publishing The volume will appeal to children's literature scholars librarians teachers education policy makers and Black British historians

Ethnic and Racial Studies Today Martin Bulmer, John Solomos, 2013-10-18 This important collection addresses recent developments in the teaching studying and presentation of race across many disciplines including sociology politics social geography cultural studies and philosophy Drawing on the latest research in all these areas the authors provide a comprehensive account of key controversies and debates and pinpoint new directions in research and scholarship that are likely to shape the study of race and ethnicity well into the next century

Discourses of Antiracism in France Catherine Lloyd, 2018-10-26 First published in 1998 this book is an examination of antiracist discourses and practices in France It sets out to trace the development of post war French antiracism through the life of antiracist organizations setting this within a broader historical political and social context It breaks new ground in that it analyses antiracism as a body of ideas in its own right rather than as a mirror image of racism The author uses previously unpublished archival material from French organizations combined with observations from current events She argues that antiracist discourses and practices are structured around four main themes discrimination representation solidarity and hegemony While perceptions of discrimination have evolved into complex understandings of social exclusion the representational functions of antiracist groups were challenged by immigrant workers movements themselves Solidarity remained central to antiracist practices in different political contexts Underpinning these features lies a hegemonic social project through which antiracists have sought to promote a common sense through political and educational campaigns The author concludes that French antiracism although constantly changing and refocusing is now a pluralist transversal hegemonic movement and an important component of civil society

Transnational Ties Michael Peter Smith, John Eade, 2017-09-08 Cities are key sites of the transnational ties that increasingly connect people places and projects across the globe They provide opportunities and constraints within which transnational actors and networks operate and nodes linking wider social formations traverse national borders This book brings together a series of richly textured ethnographic studies that suggest new ways to situate and historicize transnationalism identify new pathways to transnational urbanism and map the contours of translocal interregional and diasporic connections not previously studied The transnational ties treated in this book truly span the globe giving concrete meaning to the phrase globalization from below How have the contributors to this book conceptualized the wider context informing the conduct of their ethnographically grounded multi sited research on the relationship between cities migration and transnationalism Several interrelated contextual dimensions have been singled out as affecting the opportunities and constraints experienced by transnational migrant subjects Socio spatially in several of these chapters the political economic context now called neoliberal globalization is shown to be a key driving force creating conditions that necessitate facilitate or impede migration foster trans local economic ties and create new inter regional interdependencies e g new South South and East East transnational ties The changing historical context of both migrating groups and the cities and regions they move across are central to the study of the interplay of urban change and migrant transnationalism The historical particularities of migrant recruitment migration histories migratory narratives and changing gender and class relations all affect the character and geography of transnational migration with an impact on the social structures of community formation This is a pioneering effort in the Comparative Urban and Community Research series particular focus upon the ways in which the state is able to incorporate apparently radical political agendas Finally the book examines those intellectual and theoretical debates stimulated by recent political transformations Europe and Civil Society Carlo Ruzza,2004-07-16 Europe and Civil Society provides an in depth examination of how public interest groups and social movements seek to influence the European policy making process The book is based on a comparison of the role of networks of activists and their allies broadly defined as Movement Advocacy Coalitions in influencing decision making at the European Union level in three specific areas of policy making environmentalism anti racism and ethno nationalist regionalism It draws on systematic documentary analysis and an extensive series of interviews with activists and institutional actors to examine the role of public interest organizations in these three areas This focus reflects topical societal concerns and facilitates new insights into the study of European policy making political sociology and social movement research

Reshaping the University Rauna Kuokkanen,2011-11-01 In the past few decades the narrow intellectual foundations of the university have come under serious scrutiny Previously marginalized groups have called for improved access to the institution and full inclusion in the curriculum Reshaping the University is a timely thorough and original interrogation of academic practices It moves beyond current analyses of cultural conflicts and discrimination in academic institutions to provide an indigenous postcolonial critique of the modern university Rauna Kuokkanen argues that attempts by universities to be inclusive are unsuccessful because they do not embrace indigenous worldviews Programs established to act as bridges between mainstream and indigenous cultures ignore their ontological and epistemic differences and while offering support and assistance place the responsibility of adapting wholly on the student Indigenous students and staff are expected to leave behind their cultural perspectives and epistemes in order to adopt Western values Reshaping the University advocates a radical shift in the approach to cultural conflicts within the academy and proposes a new logic grounded in principles central to indigenous philosophies Constructions of Race, Place, and Nation Peter Jackson,Jan Penrose,1994 Thinking
