Ready to Trample on All Human Law Paul A. Jarvie, 2014-02-04 This book explores the relationship between Dickens's novels and the financial system. Elements of Dickens's work form a critique of financial capitalism. This critique is rooted in the difference between use value and exchange value and in the difference between productive circulations and mere accumulation. In a money-based society, exchange value and accumulation dominate to the point where they infect even the most important and sacred relationships between parts of society and individuals. This study explores Dickens's critique from two very different points of view. The first is philosophical, from Aristotle's distinction between chrematistic accumulation and economic use on money through Marx's focus on the teleology of capitalism as death. The second view is that of nineteenth-century financial journalism of City writers like David Morier Evans and M. L. Meason, who while functioning as cheerleaders for financial capitalism, also reflected some of the very real dis-ease associated with capital formation and accumulation. The core concepts of this critique are constant in the novels, but the critique broadens and becomes more pessimistic over time. The ill effects of living in a money-based society are presented more as the consequences of individual evil in earlier novels, while in the later books they are depicted as systemic and pervasive. Texts discussed include Nicholas Nickleby, A Christmas Carol, Little Dorrit, and Our Mutual Friend.

River Woman, River Demon Jennifer Givhan, 2022-10-04 Award-winning Mexican American and Indigenous author Jennifer Givhan brings us an exquisitely written, spell-binding psychological thriller weaving together folk magick with personal and cultural empowerment that is perfect for fans of Mexican Gothic. When Eva's husband is arrested for the murder of a friend, she must confront her murky past and embrace her magick to find out what really happened that night on the river. Eva Santos Moon is a burgeoning Chicana artist who practices the ancient spiritual ways of bruja and curanderismo, but she's at one of her lowest points, suffering from disorienting blackouts, creative stagnation, and a feeling of disconnect from her magickal roots. When her husband, a beloved university professor and the glue that holds their family together, is taken into custody for the shocking murder of their friend, Eva doesn't know whom to trust, least of all herself. She soon falls under suspicion as a potential suspect, and her past rises to the surface, dredging up the truth about an eerily similar death from her childhood. Struggling with fragmented memories and self-doubt, an increasingly terrified Eva fears that she might have been involved in both murders. But why doesn't she remember? Only the dead women know for sure, and they're coming for her with a haunting vengeance. As she fights to keep her family out of danger, Eva realizes she must use her magick as a bruja to protect herself and her loved ones while confronting her own dark history. River Woman, River Demon is a mysterious incantation of reckoning with the past and claiming one's unique power and voice.
