Gabriella Lazaridis, Giovanna Campani, 2016-11-10 During the European elections of 2014 one of the main issues raised by the media was the electoral performance of so called populist parties The electorate confirmed its deep dissatisfaction with mainstream political parties voting for far right parties in parliamentary elections in Northern Europe Austria Denmark Sweden Eastern Europe Hungary where the deeply anti Semitic Jobbik party gained votes and in France where the French National Front won about a quarter of the vote while in the Southern European countries battered by austerity policies it was the radical right and left in Greece Golden Dawn and Syriza and the radical left in Spain Podemos that obtained excellent scores This book examines the growing trend towards far and extreme right populism that has emerged prominently in Northern Finland Western Austria Denmark France the UK Southern Greece Italy and Central Eastern Europe Slovenia Bulgaria since the 1990s Providing a critical understanding of current European trends and analysing the complex phenomena covered by the notion of populism this book will be of interest to students and scholars researching right wing politics as well as European politics more generally Dawn's Shadow Bonnie

Rage At Dawn , Sisters on Screen Eva Rueschmann,2000 Perhaps the most vital emotionally complex and lasting attachments between women occur between sisters Whether as best friends or antagonists sisters remain entangled in a common tapestry of mutual experience and remembrance family and history according to author Eva Rueschmann Although many of the women centered films in the last three decades depict the relationship between sisters as a pivotal aspect of a character s psychological development the now substantial body of feminist film criticism has not taken up this theme in any sustained way In Sisters on Screen Eva Rueschmann explores the sister bond in a wide range of modernist feature films that depart from the conventional cinematic rendering of women s lives Drawing on the psychoanalytic concept of intersubjectivity this book emphasizes the role of a woman s relationship and inner world in her continual quest for self knowledge Offering an original and absorbing perspective on women s filmic images Sisters on Screen reveals how post 1960s cinema has articulated the ways in which biological sisters negotiate mutuality and difference co author family histories and profoundly shape each other s political and personal identities The films in focus question standards of femininity as they probe into memory fantasy and desire bringing women s realities into view in the process Structuring her discussion in terms of life cycle stages adolescence and adulthood Rueschmann offers an in depth discussion of such films as An Angel at My Table Double Happiness Eve s Bayou Gas Food Lodging Heavenly Creatures Little Women Marianne and Julianne Paura e amore Peppermint Soda The Silence Sweetie and Welcome to the Dollhouse Rueschmann draws upon the works of filmmakers from the 1970s to the 1990s Some of the directors included in her study are Allison Anders Gillian Armstrong Ingmar Bergman Jane Campion Peter Jackson Mina Shum Diane Kurys Kasi Lemmons Todd Solondz and Margarethe von Trotta Sisters on Screen will appeal to anyone interested in women s studies film studies psychology psychoanalytic readings of cinema women directors and international modern film Author note Eva Rueschmann is Assistant Professor of Cultural Studies at Hampshire College Pentacles Five C. R. Bryan,2015-10-23 A gently shining aura shaped coffin like formed closely around William Wimmurs rigid grimacing body Mortimer the Magnificent Dragon sighed nonchalantly Oh well another day another demon Morty took a ring of running rainbow fire off one of his dainty long fingers He did a calliope version of one of his favorite tunes Find a Ring and slid the ring onto Williams left index finger The flaming ring adjusted to fit William as if it were an old possession A Promise And A Way Of Life Becky Thompson,2001-08-07 The first in depth look at white people s activism in fighting racism during the past fifty years Not since the Civil Rights Movement of the 1950s and 1960s when many white college students went south to fight against Jim Crow laws has white antiracist activity held the public s attention Yet there have always been white people involved in fighting racism In this passionate work Becky Thompson looks at white Americans who have struggled against racism offering examples of both successes and failures inspirations practical philosophies and a way ahead A Promise and a Way of Life weaves an account of the past half century based on the life histories of thirty nine people who have placed antiracist activism at the center of their lives Through a rich and fascinating narrative that links individual experiences with social and political history Thompson shows the ways both public and personal in which whites have opposed racism during several social movements the Civil Rights and Black Power movements multiracial feminism the Central American peace movement the struggle for antiracist education and activism against the prison industry Beginning with the diverse catalysts that started these activists on their journeys this book demonstrates the contributions and limitations of white antiracism in key social justice movements Through these stories crucial questions are raised Does antiracist work require a repudiation of one s whiteness or can that identity be transformed through political commitment and alliances What do white people need to do to undermine white privilege What would it take to build a multiracial movement in which white people are responsible for creating antiracist alliances while not co-opting people of color Unique in its depth and thoroughness A Promise and a Way of Life is essential for anyone currently fighting racism or wondering how to do so Through its demonstration of the extraordinary personal and social transformations ordinary people can make it provides a new paradigm for movement activity one that will help to incite and guide future antiracist activism Kine weekly ,1955
