Raincoast Chronicles Fourth Five:

Raincoast Chronicles, Fourth Five Howard White, 2005 When the first edition of Raincoast Chronicles was produced by a couple of novice publishers in the unlikely location of Pender Harbour in 1972 it boldly announced that it was going to put BC character on the record Printed in sepia ink and decorated with the rococo flourishes characteristic of that extravagant era the unclassifiable journal cum serial book about life on the BC coast struck a nerve and in time became something very close to what it set out to be a touchstone of BC identity Soon the term Raincoast which had been coined by the editors was appearing on boats puppet theatres interior decorating firms and at least one other publishing enterprise The publication proved popular enough that by the time the fifth number was on the stands the previous four were sold out and publishers Howard and Mary White were left pondering how to deal with the continuing clamour for back issues Ignoring the advice of more experienced heads they decided to reissue the first five numbers of their rather eccentric paperback series in one bound volume in hardcover yet They gave it the enigmatic title Raincoast Chronicles First Five It went on to become one of the most popular books ever published in BC and is still rumbling along in its 14th printing a certified BC classic That set the pattern and every succeeding group of five single editions have been gathered and bound with the titles Raincoast Chronicles Six Ten Raincoast Chronicles Eleven Up and now Raincoast Chronicles Fourth Five By far the largest of the collections at 420 pages Fourth Five collects the complete Raincoast Chronicles 16 17 18 19 and 20 and is living proof that some things just keep getting better Containing 32 inimitable stories from poems and articles the volume expounds on such diverse matters as supernatural deer the cannery village of Ceepeecee fishing fleet superstitions and the coveted recipe for donkey boiler coffee Writers include coast favourites Howard White Doreen Armitage Tom Henry Dick Hammond Vickie Jensen and Bus Griffiths As a bonus this collection includes two longer features one on the history of Telegraph Cove BC by Pat Wastell Norris and one on the frontier women of BC by Stephen Hume The book is illustrated in characteristically extravagant fashion with drawings and archival photos shadowy origins in the late 1700s to its demise in western Canada in 1967 Whaling in the eastern North Pacific represented a century and a half of exploration and exploitation which involved the entrepreneurs merchants politicians and seamen of a dozen nations The results of the whaling effort mirrored the outcome of whaling throughout the world By exploiting the large whales without considering their finite numbers or reproductive capacity the industry drove its prey to commercial extinction It was the seamen themselves however who gave substance to the business of whaling On the Northwest focuses on the working lives of these men the shellbacks before the mast the colourful harpoon gunners who chased the whales from spray
