Dixon,2000-02-24 New essays by prominent film scholars address recent developments in American genre filmmaking The "Inscrutably Chinese" Church Nathan Faries,2010-09-23 The first half of the twenty first century promises to be a time of great change for the Christian church in the People s Republic of China The situation is complex and fluid and the information gap between those on the inside and those outside of China is still significant though shrinking The Inscrutably Chinese Church moves readers nearer to the Chinese Christian experience as Nathan Faries helps foreign readers to see with greater clarity just how Chinese Christians view their government and themselves in relation to those ruling powers There still exists a measure of inscrutability about China and its complex relationship with religion that must be explained to the outsider It is this gap in understanding between insider points of view within China and those outsiders seeking knowledge about the Christian faith in China that Faries seeks to close The Asian Influence on Hollywood Action Films Barna William Donovan,2014-09-17 Filmmakers of the Pacific Rim have been delivering punches and flying kicks to the Hollywood movie industry for years This book explores the ways in which the storytelling and cinematic techniques of Asian popular culture have migrated from grainy low budget martial arts movies to box office blockbusters such as The Magnificent Seven Star Wars The Matrix and Transformers While special effects gained prominence the raw and gritty power of live combat emerged as an audience favorite spawning Asian stars Bruce Lee and Jackie Chan and martial arts trained stars Chuck Norris and Steven Seagal As well as capturing the sheer onscreen adrenaline rush that characterizes the films discussed this work explores the impact of violent cinematic entertainment and why it is often misunderstood Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Hollywood in China Ying Zhu,2022-04-12 China surpassed North America to become the world s largest movie market in 2020 Formerly the focus of exotic fascination in the golden age of Hollywood today the Chinese are a make or break audience for Hollywood s biggest blockbusters And movies are now an essential part of China s global soft power strategy a Chinese real estate tycoon who until recently was the major shareholder of the AMC theater chain built the world s largest film production facility Behind the curtains as this brilliant new book reveals movies have become one of the biggest areas of competition between the world s two remaining superpowers Will Hollywood be eclipsed by its Chinese counterpart No author is better positioned to untangle this riddle than Ying Zhu a leading expert on Chinese film and media In fascinating vignettes Hollywood in China unravels the century long relationship between Hollywood and China for the first time Blending cultural history business and international relations Hollywood in China charts multiple power dynamics and teases out how competing political and economic interests as well as cultural values are manifested in the art and artifice of filmmaking on a global scale and with global ramifications The book is an inside look at the intense business and political maneuvering that is shaping the movies and the U S China relationship itself revealing a headlines grabbing conflict that is playing out not only on the high seas but on the silver screen
