From the Kur to the Aras George Bournoutian, 2020-12-29 In From the Kur to the Aras George A Bournoutian presents the first military history of the Russian advance into the South Caucasus in 1801 and the ensuing First Russo Iran War 1804-1813 that was a crucial step in the Russian Empire's eventual expansion into the Caucasus region. Using both Iranian and Russian primary sources, the work vividly describes the strategies, military capabilities, and personalities that clashed for ten years, ending with the Treaty of Golestan. Numerous and illustrative maps, as well as informative appendices, add to a balanced view of a struggle between an ancient and an emerging empire.

Imperial Rivals Sarah C.M. Paine, 2023-05-31 Based on archival research, this is a history of the Russo-Chinese border which examines Russia's expansion into the Asian heartland during the decades of Chinese decline and the 20th-century paradox of Russia's inability to sustain political and economic sway over its domains. Nationalism and Globalisation Daphne Halikiopoulou, Sofia Vasilopoulou, 2013-03 Nationalism and globalisation are two central phenomena of the modern world that have both shaped and been shaped by each other, yet few connections have been made systematically between the two. This book brings together leading international scholars to examine the effect of globalisation on nationalism and how the persistence of the nation affects globalisation. With a range of case studies from Europe, the US, and Asia, the authors focus on the interaction between globalisation, national identity, national sovereignty, state formation, and the economy. Part one provides theoretical reflections on the flexibility and plasticity of the terms nationalism and globalisation, focusing on the ways in which nationalism has shaped and has been shaped by globalising forces. Part two examines the relationship between nationalism and globalisation in different historical eras and different regions, questioning established approaches. Part three focuses on contemporary issues including the economic crisis, labour migration, and citizenship, and the theme of global culture. The result is a highly topical account that considers the conceptual landscape of Nationalism and Globalisation. With an interdisciplinary approach, Nationalism and Globalisation will be of interest to students and scholars of political science, sociology, history, economics, and international relations. Borderlines and Borderlands Alexander C. Diener, Joshua Hagen, 2010-01-16 From our earliest schooldays we are shown the world as a colorful collage of countries, each defined by their own immutable borders. What we often don't realize is that every political boundary was created by people. No political border is more natural or real than another, yet some international borders make no apparent sense at all. While focusing on some of these unusual border shapes, this fascinating book highlights the important truth that all borders, even those that appear normal, are social constructions. In an era where the continued relevance of the nation-state is being questioned and where transnationalism is altering the degree to which borders effectively demarcate spaces of belonging, the contributors argue that this point is vital to our understanding of the world The unique and compelling histories of some of the world s oddest borders provide an ideal context for this group of experts to offer accessible and enlightening discussions of cultural globalization economic integration international migration imperialism postcolonialism global terrorism nationalism and supranationalism Each author s regional expertise enriches a textured account of the historical context in which these borders came into existence as well as their historical and ongoing influence on the people and states they bound To view more maps from the David Rumsey Map Collection visit www.davidrumsey.com Contributions by Eric D Carter Karen Culcasi Alexander C Diener Joshua Hagen Reece Jones Robert Lloyd Nick Megoran Julian V Minghi David Newman Robert Ostergren and William C Rowe

Ottoman Wars, 1700-1870 Virginia Aksan, 2014-01-14 The Ottoman Empire had reached the peak of its power presenting a very real threat to Western Christendom when in 1683 it suffered its first major defeat at the Siege of Vienna Tracing the empire s conflicts of the next two centuries The Ottoman Wars An Empire Besieged examines the social transformation of the Ottoman military system in an era of global imperialism Spanning more than a century of conflict the book considers challenges the Ottoman government faced from both neighbouring Catholic Habsburg Austria and Orthodox Romanov Russia as well as arguably more importantly from military intellectual and religious groups within the empire Using close analysis of select campaigns Virginia Aksan first discusses the Ottoman Empire s changing internal military context before addressing the modernized regimental organisation under Sultan Mahmud II after 1826 Featuring illustrations and maps many of which have never been published before The Ottoman Wars draws on previously untapped source material to provide an original and compelling account of an empire near financial and societal collapse and the successes and failures of a military system under siege The book is a fascinating study of the decline of an international power raising questions about the influence of culture on warfare

The Shadow of Colonialism on Europe's Modern Past R. Healy, E. Dal Lago, Enrico Dal Lago, 2014-10-28 Through a range of case studies from eastern and western Europe this book breaks new ground in investigating the extent to which European peoples living within Europe were also subjected to the ideologies and practices of colonialism
