Dictionary Catalog of the Slavonic Collection New York Public Library. Slavonic Division,New York Public Library. Research Libraries,1974 Corpus-based Approaches to Contrastive Linguistics and Translation Studies ,2021-08-04 Corpus based Approaches to Contrastive Linguistics and Translation Studies presents readers with up to date research in corpus based contrastive linguistics and translation studies showing the high degree of complementarity between the two fields in terms of research methodology interests and objectives Offering theoretical descriptive and applied perspectives the articles show how translation and contrastive approaches to grammar lexis and discourse can be harmoniously combined

through the use of monolingual bilingual and multilingual corpora and how contrastive information needs to inform translation research and vice versa The notion of contrastive linguistics adopted here is broad thus alongside comparisons of Malay English idioms and the French imparfait and its English equivalents there are articles comparing different varieties of French and sign language with spoken language This collection should be of interest to researchers in corpus linguistics contrastive linguistics and translation studies In addition the section on corpus based teaching applications will be of great value to teachers of translation and contrastive linguistics

Aspect Bernard Comrie, 1976-06-03 An introduction to verbal aspect as a general linguistic phenomenon with examples primarily from English Slavonic and Romance languages

Nonverbal Predication Isabelle Roy, 2013-04-25 This book considers the syntax and semantics of non verbal predicates i e nominal adjectival and prepositional predicates in copular sentences Isabelle Roy explores how a single structure for predication can account for the different interpretations of non verbal predicates The book departs from earlier studies by arguing in favor of a ternary distinction between defining characterizing situation descriptive predicates rather than the more common stage level individual distinction The distinction is based on two semantic criteria namely maximality i e whether the predicate describes an eventuality that has spatio temporal properties or not and density i e whether the spatio temporal properties are perceived as atomic or not The author argues in favor of a strong correlation between the semantics properties of predicates and their internal syntactic structure Her analysis accounts for seemingly unrelated cross linguistic data the indefinite article in French the distribution of the two copulas ser estar in Spanish and case marking on Russian predicates
