Reading, Literature, and Psychology in Action. Philip Davis, Rhiannon Corcoran, Josie Billington, Arthur Frank, 2023-06-23. Psychology in Action is a term coined by the Guest Editors from the Centre for Research into Reading, Literature, and Society (CRILS), University of Liverpool, in their work in filming, recording, and analyzing shared reading groups led by The Reader organization. It refers both to the work of psychology within literary texts and to the responses of multifarious reader participants to literature read live and aloud in small community groups within a variety of settings. In particular, psychology in action has meant seeing readers suddenly activated into deep personal thinking, responding to situations imaginatively simulated by reading literature in ways that trigger surprised and involuntary emotion, autobiographical memory, and spontaneous empathy. Teaching Reading in the Middle School.
