Sacraments Of Love:

Mystery and Sacrament of Love Marc Cardinal Ouellet, 2015 An internationally respected Roman Catholic leader on the mystery sacrament of marriage Marriage and the family are at the forefront of the burning questions being debated by civil society and the church today Cultural changes in our increasingly secularized society have dire consequences in the family sphere requiring a Christian response that is faithful to the Church's tradition says Marc Cardinal Ouellet In Mystery and Sacrament of Love Ouellet clearly expounds a theology of marriage and the Catholic Church's understanding of the sacrament celebrated between spouses and God Developed with influences from Pope Francis the theological intuitions of Vatican II the contributions of Saint John Paul II the pope of the family and the innovative thought of Hans Urs von Balthasar Ouellet's study lays the foundations for a faithful resurgence of well being for families in our contemporary day and age loved For more than a decade renowned Scripture Evangelista Sonja Corbitt has inspired Catholic audiences with her teachings on how to read the Bible and apply its principles to everyday life In her flagship book Love Heals Corbitt distills her years of ministry and teaching to explore scripture as a profound source for healing She emphasizes that the key to whole person healing is found in the greatest commandment You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength and your neighbor as yourself Mark 12 30 According to Corbitt this commandment is not given for God s benefit but for ours because God s love has the power to heal every part of us painful emotions fears and memories judgments deficits and wounds of love oppressive anxious negative thoughts and weary diseased bodies Drawing from the healing stories of the gospels as well as her own life experiences Corbitt shows how the love of Jesus brings healing to every wounded and broken part of us so that we can in turn pour that love into everyone we meet Love Heals will teach you to recognize areas of your life that are wounded by sin neglect and weakness and respond to God s invitation for healing Mark 12 30 heal blind spots in your emotions and memories and address the root cause of your suffering just as Jesus healed blind Bartimaeus Mark 10 46 52 encounter Christ through the sacraments affirming your identity in Christ and his Church and be healed of sinful and painful judgments and actions just as Christ healed the Samaritan woman at the well John 4 4 42 find release from toxic patterns of thinking that take root and multiply in your life so that you can begin to hear and respond to the truth just as the deaf man was able to hear the proclamation of the Gospel message Mark 7 31 37 give and receive forgiveness in order to begin the process of physical healing alleviating suffering brought on by negativity and other spiritual strongholds just as Jesus was able to heal the man by the pool of Bethesda John 5 1 15 In Love Heals Corbitt will walk with you hand in hand through the process of opening your heart mind body and soul to the healing love of God not because there is something wrong with you or because you need to be fixed but because healing is your rightful inheritance as a child of God God s love heals God s love resurrects God s love renews God s love transforms

The Analogy of Love Gary Chartier, 2015-11-09 This book offers an overview of Christian theology organized around the twin themes of divine and human love The book covers the traditional theological topics as well as basic questions of theological method It seeks to integrate a focus on love throughout While love is regularly canvassed as a dominant theme in Christian thought it has rarely been the focus of Christian theological construction or a constraint on theological formulation The book seeks to suggest chapter by chapter how a given topic relates to the broad theme of love The book is written in a way designed to make it accessible to university students and educated laypersons At the same time it takes positions on controverted scholarly issues and the methodological approach outlined at the beginning will be of interest to academic theologians

Pierced by Love Hans Boersma, 2023-04-19 Holy Scripture requires holy reading Encounter an ancient but fresh way of reading the Bible Learn from Augustine Anselm of Canterbury Bernard of Clairvaux and others Experience a structured and simple way to focus on Christ listen to the Spirit and rest in God s love Jesus is the point of reading the Bible

Christians read Scripture to encounter Christ and be conformed to his image Scripture is no mere human text it is God's living word So how should we read it For Christians throughout the centuries the answer has been lectio divina divine reading em Lectio divina is a sacramental reading It aims to take us more deeply into the life of God Through practicing the four movements of emlectio divina attentive reading extended meditation prayerful reflection and silent resting we have a structured and simple way to focus on Christ listen to the Spirit and rest in God's love We no longer simply read the words of Scripture instead we read the face of God in the eternal Word

A Nonviolent Theology of Love Sharon L. Baker Putt, 2021-02-02 The impetus behind the ease with which the church has periodically justified violent behavior lies in its conceptual image of God as a violent deity This book emerges out of a passion to think differently albeit biblically about the character of God and articulates a theological construction of a nonviolent God an alternative to any image of God that seems to condone human violence It calls the church to rethink theology as something other than what might be termed redemptive violence and encourages Christians to reinterpret Scripture and traditional theological beliefs in ways that are more faithful to the God disclosed in Jesus of Nazareth Students of theology need a fresh glimpse of the love mercy and redemptive power of God through Jesus As it follows the structure of the Apostles Creed through the various theological topics this book reminds Christians to share in God s desires for peace and love and to recommit themselves to the call of God to be ministers of reconciliation and lovers of both neighbors and enemies even while at times responding to violence with nonviolent resistance Doors to Life!
