England Drawing on a wide range of sources including art liturgy prayer poetry meditative guides and treatises of spiritual instruction Holy Matter reveals an important transformation in late medieval devotional practice a shift from metaphor to material from gazing on images of a God made visible in the splendor of natural beauty to looking at the natural world itself and finding there God's presence and promise of salvation The Publishers Weekly ,1997 Stechapfel und

Fernández-Cobián,2014-10-02 The identity of places of worship is one of the most difficult problems faced by religious architecture at the start of this new millennium Contemporary globalising experiences demand peremptorily a reflection both conceptual and situational on the origin of objects people and institutions Nevertheless the chance of these migration flows annihilating already existing religious identities is perceived as a problem This problem is directly linked to the survival of architecture as a system carrying a material representation of the divine and constituting a self reference system for the community of believers Therefore it is important to define the extent to which the new religious architecture has given room to an abstract type of formal experimentation which is disconnected from social reality Does this architecture maintain its bridging sacramental value or on the contrary has it given way to the conceptualist trends still alive in the artistic world Is metaphor a valid concept for the Christian religion Is there an essential aspect linking this architecture to the centuries old tradition of the Catholic Church Different architectural pedagogical exhibition and formal initiatives have arisen in recent years and it is necessary to get to know them with the purpose of understanding where contemporary religious architecture is heading in its eternal search for a permanent identity A Concise History of Afghanistan in 25 Volumes Hamid

Rothenberg, 2011-09-14 There is a striking similarity between Marian devotional songs and secular love songs of the late Middle Ages and Renaissance Two disparate genres one sacred the other secular one Latin the other vernacular both praise an idealized impossibly virtuous woman Each does so through highly stylized derivations of traditional medieval song forms Marian prayer derived from earlier Gregorian chant and love songs and lyrics from medieval courtly song Yet despite their obvious similarities the two musical and poetic traditions have rarely been studied together Author David J Rothenberg takes on this task with remarkable success producing a useful and broad introduction to Marian music and liturgy and then coupling that with an incisive comparative analysis of these devotional forms and the words and music of secular love songs of the period The Flower of Paradise examines the interplay of Marian devotional and secular poetics within polyphonic music from ca 1200 to ca 1500 Through case studies of works that demonstrate a specific symbolic resonance between Marian devotion and secular song the book illustrates the distinctive ethos of this period in European culture Rothenberg makes use of an impressive command of liturgical and religious studies literature and poetry and art history to craft a study with wide application across disciplinary boundaries With its broad scope and unique incisive analysis this book will open up new ways of thinking about the history and development of secular and sacred music and the Marian tradition for scholars students and anyone with an interest in medieval and Renaissance religious culture     Love-letters to an Unnamed Party: Meditations and Reflections On the Messages of Our Lady of Medjugorje and Holy Love Ministries A Soul,2017-07-09 This book is a compilation of several love letters and other writings about Marian apparitions that can be found on the author s blog This book provides a solid introduction into the spirituality of the United Hearts of Jesus Christ and the Blessed Virgin Mary the Sacred Heart and the Immaculate Heart the Two Hearts of Holy Love and Divine Love The heavenly messages relied upon by the author in this book come primarily from these two sources Our Lady of Medjugorje Holy Love Ministries Although this book is written by a Catholic Christian the intended audience is for all peoples of all faiths and non believers It is the sincere hope of the author that all readers will be inspired by the spirituality contained within the book s pages which the author believes comes directly from God s Own Paternal Heart Series Living in Holy Love Volume 1     The Holy Word in Its Own Defence ...
