Encyclopedia of the African Diaspora Carole Boyce Davies, 2008-07-29 The authoritative source for information on the people places and events of the African Diaspora spanning five continents and five centuries The field of African Diaspora studies is rapidly growing Until now there was no single authoritative source for information on this broad complex discipline Drawing on the work of over 300 scholars this encyclopedia fills that void Now the researcher from high school level up can go to a single reference for information on the historical political economic and cultural relations between people of African descent and the rest of the world community Five hundred years of relocation and dislocation of assimilation and separation have produced a rich tapestry of history and culture into which are woven people places and events This authoritative accessible work picks out the strands of the tapestry telling the story of diverse peoples separated by time and distance but retaining a commonality of origin and experience Organized in A Z sections covering global topics country of origin and destination country the work is designed for easy use by all

The Circassians in the Imperial Discourse of Pushkin, Lermontov and Tolstoy Aida O. Azouqa, 2004 Two Hundred Years of Pushkin: Alexander Pushkin : myth and monument Joe Andrew, Robert Reid, 2003 Puskin s poetry prose and drama frequently draw upon myths of classical antiquity myths of modern European culture grand narratives such as the Don Juan legend and Dante s Inferno as well as uniquely Russian myths The contributors to this volume explore these myths from a variety of critical viewpoints and highlight the specific ways in which Pushkin uses myth among these his recurrent emphasis on the symbolism of monuments and statuary
