Sacred Times For Christian Families:

Sacred Times for Christian Families Monica E. Breidenbach,1980 Sacred Time Rohan Singh,AI,2025-03-05

Sacred Time explores the profound connection between timekeeping and spirituality across diverse cultures. It argues that calendars are not merely practical tools but culturally constructed frameworks imbued with religious meaning. The book highlights how religious beliefs have shaped our perception and organization of time, demonstrating the cultural impact of religion on daily life. One intriguing insight is how prayer cycles such as daily monastic routines structure believers' lives, connecting them to a divine order. Another is the role of sacred festivals like Easter or Diwali in reinforcing communal identity and spiritual renewal. The book examines the evolution of calendar systems from ancient lunar calendars to complex Mayan systems, providing historical context for understanding how early civilizations integrated astronomy with religious narratives. It progresses by introducing fundamental concepts of sacred time, then explores prayer cycles and sacred festivals in different traditions. By drawing from archaeological records, ancient texts, and ethnographic studies, Sacred Time offers a fresh perspective on the relationship between time, religion, and culture, making it valuable for anyone interested in history, religion, and cultural diversity. Sacred Hours by Living Streams: Popular Expositions of Divine Truth Robert Kerr (Baptist Minister.),1866

Overseas Chinese Christians in Contemporary China Sin Wen Lau,2020-08-25 Overseas Chinese Christians in Contemporary China explores how diasporic Chinese understandings of what it means to be Chinese are changing in post 1978 China. Ethnographically, it focuses on overseas Chinese Christian business people residing in Shanghai. Hyper mobile, well educated, and financially secure, these elites adopt a long term view of their time in the country. This study examines how these elites put Christianity to work, mediating their hopes, fears, and obligations in order to illuminate the ways in which this overseas Chinese experience departs from existing academic models of diasporic Chinese as either bridge builders or pragmatic capitalists. By focusing on religion, this study offers novel insights into how overseas Chinese are making a place for themselves in a globalising China. The Local Preachers' Magazine and Christian Family Record ,1865

The negative consequences of such a lifestyle are well known, but few of us are able to put on the brakes so that we can truly enjoy the gift of one another. Tim and Sue Muldoon take both a meditative and practical approach to this issue They help us experience the peace that only God can give and they also share what has and hasn't worked in their own family While there is no magic bullet the Muldoons show us that when we put God first in our lives our other priorities fall into line as well That makes it possible to discern the best ways to spend our time both individually and collectively to build a strong foundation of lasting family relationships Family Practices in South Asian Muslim Families H. By a Bible Christian, 1852 Holy Together Kathleen Finley, 2020-09-18 This book is a look at the spirituality of marriage through the lens of Christian spirituality It will help you see how your faith and spirituality is lived out daily in your marriage not just in the churchy activities you may attend Through looking at grace vocation community asceticism incarnation discernment dying and rising you will see more fully the holiness of what you are already living in your marriage as well as some ways that you can enhance and support that holiness The term holiness may not be used that often when it comes to marriage but when you begin to see God s presence everywhere it is clear that your life is holy that is drenched in God indeed Family Prayer Book Thomas Church Brownell,1841 Equality and the Family Don S. Browning,2007 In Equality and the Family Don Browning pulls together essays he has published in the past in order to shed light on the path we should take in the future He contends that practical theology can be envisioned as a practical research program and he uses the very concrete example of the family to illustrate how this works Though it may sound unlikely that equality in the family can be based on Christian ideas Browning insists that it can and that it should His desire is to be pro family and pro marriage in ways that create justice and equality within the family Based on this goal he argues for the church s ideal model of the mother father partnership to be balanced with an understanding and acceptance of the pluralism of family forms as a part of modern life including church life A brief introduction of each essay is included to help the reader understand the original context of the piece
