Sacred Dimensions Of Womens Experience:

Sacred Dimensions of Women's Experience Elizabeth Dodson Gray,1988 Spiritual Dimensions of Pastoral Care John Swinton,David Willows,2001-10-01 Written by significant researchers and practitioners within the field this unique collection of key texts introduces the reader to practical theology It critically explores the way in which the spiritual dimension of pastoral care has entered into constructive dialogue with other disciplines and ways of thinking

WomanProphet Elizabeth Love,2019-04-30 Most women are raised in a context of feminine values whether they are aware of those values or not Some of the values specific to this feminine culture are interdependence caring and relationality In our time many women cross over into a masculine value culture when they take on what were traditional male roles in male evolved institutions Eventually women become aware that their own values conflict with some assumed male values They then have to compromise and adjust in order to be productive in those environments The women I have focused on in this study have because of a significant external event or events and an emerging inner vision left both structures They then however lack others around them whose values structures can reinforce adherence When these women are by themselves they experience something like a dark night of the soul Once they get beyond the pain and a sense of meaninglessness they begin to realize that they can move the constructs of reality that they can write history as well as read it An essential concern is to determine what their values are After this process their own personal vision becomes clear But the cycle isn't complete until they bring that new vision back to their people And bringing it back in a holistic sense helps to raise the moral sights of others who are influenced by that experience Ritual Making Women Jan Berry,2017-07-05 Ritual Making Women looks at the way in which women's making of ritual has emerged from the rapidly developing field of women's spirituality and theology The author uses ethnographic material to explore how the construction of ritual uses story making and embodied action to empower women Ritual far from being a timeless and universal practice is shown to be a contextual and gendered performance in which women subvert conventional distinctions of private and public The book combines narrative and case study material and draws on feminist theology and theory social anthropology and gender studies Introducing

Theology Melissa Raphael,1998-12-31 There are a number of participant accounts of the revival of Goddess religion among feminists in Europe America and Australasia But students and others interested in issues in the relation of religion theology and gender need an accessible and concise critical overview of this contemporary religious phenomenon and its discourses Introducing Theology which offers a contextual analysis of the theology ontology historiography and ethics of various types of Goddess feminism is designed to meet that need Dear Sisters: A Womanist Practice of Hospitality N. Lynne Westfield,2007-10-01 What allows African American women not just to survive but to become resilient N Lynne Westfield finds an answer to this question as she examines the Dear Sisters Literary Group As a Womanist scholar Westfield reflects on the ways in which the hospitality of the group relates to the long standing African American tradition of concealed gatherings the Christian tradition of hospitality and Christian education Feminist Thought, Student Economy Edition Rosemarie Tong, 2018-10-03 This book provides a clear comprehensive and incisive introduction to the major traditions of feminist theory from liberal feminism radical feminism and Marxist and socialist feminism to care focused feminism psychoanalytic feminism women of color feminisms and ecofeminism Women and Christian Mission Frances Adeney, 2015-11-04 What are Christian women thinking about mission How do they do mission What informs their knowledge and action as they address issues in a complex world where religious proselytizing has become suspect This empirical study explores those questions finding congruence among women from diverse backgrounds and cultural contexts Women in mission face common identity issues utilize art and beauty in their work and develop character as they overcome obstacles in their cultural and denominational settings Through nearly one hundred interviews of women in Europe Asia Brazil and the United States a study of women s theologies of mission lectures and countless conversations with women around the globe this study finds common themes among contemporary women doing Christian mission This book fills a lacuna in mission studies that professors pastors and church women and men will find informative and refreshing Woman of Power , 1989 Natural Discourse Sidney I. Dobrin, Christian R. Weisser, 2012-02-01 The first full length book to address the relationships between environment and discourse Natural Discourse explains why and how ecocomposition has become such a critical part of composition studies Beginning by exploring the roots of ecocomposition including a history of the use of the term ecocomposition the book then examines ecological aspects of composition studies and looks at how ecocomposition is informed by ecocriticism cultural studies ecofeminism environmental rhetoric and composition studies The authors draw on their own experiences as teachers of writing and outdoor enthusiasts to describe how ecocomposition can address issues of language and nature public intellectualism and pedagogy
