Developing Arts Loving Readers Nan McDonald, Douglas Fisher, 2002-05-21 Developing Arts Loving Readers is based on the premise that children can and do learn a great deal about the arts and their own abilities innately Involvement and immersion author Nan L McDonald argues are the ways in which children may feel welcome to write move create draw and otherwise express ideas about art and music directly Teaching suggestions are offered to classroom teachers and other non specialists so that classroom reading activities may be extended into group discussions cooperative learning arts projects and creative performances Appended are extensive resource lists for further integrated arts teaching in the classroom

Children's Books from Other Countries Carl M. Tomlinson, 1998-01-15 Every child is entranced by the magic of story regardless of national boundaries Many of the most memorable childhood stories have their origins in other countries Exposing children to this multi national body of literature introduces them to the great diversity of people and cultures that populate the world at a young age enabling them to become more thoughtful and generous individuals Children s Books from Other Countries is a complete and current guide to international children s literature The concept of a bibliography of international children s literature is not new In the past many books have accomplished this task The last two decades however have not yet produced a current reference source devoted to international children s books Children s Books from Other Countries wonderfully rectifies this lack of attention An introductory essay provides an overview of the field including a discussion on the rationale of sharing international books with children a brief history of the children s literature movement related books and awards and basic information about the International Board on Books for Young People IBBY and its American branch the United States Board on Books for Young People USBBY An annotated bibliography contains over 700 titles from 29 different countries printed between 1950 and 1996 All titles are available in English many have been translated and others have originated in other English speaking countries The titles are organized by genre and
