Iran Homa Katouzian, 2013-03-05 This book offers a view of Iran through politics history and literature showing how the three angles combine Iran being a revolutionary society experienced two great revolutions within the short span of just seventy years from the 1900s to the 1970s Both were massive revolts of the society against the state the main objective of the first being to establish lawful government to make modernisation possible and the second to overthrow the absolute and arbitrary state though this time mainly under the banner of religion and Marxism Leninism and anti Westernism Neither of them succeeded in their lofty ideals for reasons that are explained and analysed within The author also offers a detailed description of Iran's short term society examining the political and intellectual lives of two of the most remarkable intellectuals cum politicians of the twentieth century This book provides an overview of modern Persian literature both poetry and prose and discusses the works of three of the most remarkable Persian poets and writers of the period It considers classical Persian literature through the great variety of its form and substance and neo classical literary developments in the nineteenth century covering the whole history of Persian literature This is crowned in the last chapter by the love poetry of one of the greatest Persian poets Iran will be of interest to students and scholars of Iranian studies and Middle East Politics Forugh Farrokhzad, Poet of Modern Iran Dominic Parviz Brookshaw, Nasrin Rahimieh, 2023-05-04 The pioneering Iranian poet and filmmaker Forugh Farrokhzad was an iconic figure in her own day and has come to represent the spirit of revolt against patriarchal and cultural norms in 1960s Iran Five decades after her tragic death at the age of 32 Forugh Farrokhzad Poet of Modern Iran brings her ground breaking work into new focus During her lifetime Farrokhzad embodied the vexed predicament of the contemporary Iranian woman at once subjected to long held traditional practices and influenced by newly introduced modern social sensibilities Highlighting her literary and cinematic innovation this volume examines the unique place Farrokhzad occupies in Iran both among modern Persian poets in general and as an Iranian woman writer in particular The authors also explore Farrokhzad s appeal outside Iran in the Iranian diasporic imagination and through the numerous translations of her poetry into English It is a fitting and authoritative tribute to the work of a remarkable woman which will introduce and explain her legacy for a 21st century audience This second edition includes two new chapters which explore a travelogue Farrokhzad wrote during her time in Italy and an examination of Farrokhzad s influence on the writings of the Afghan female poet Laila Saradat Rowshani Men of Order Touraj Atabaki, Erik J. Zürcher, 2004-07-23 Nationalism nation building and defensive modernisation were the main themes of the cultural revolution underpinning the totalitarian and secular regimes of Ataturk and Reza Shah which replaced the traditional Qajar state of Iran and the long declining Ottoman Empire The authors trace the emergence of Ataturk and Reza Shah through the constitutional revolutions in Iran and the Ottoman Empire and the introduction of European social models the establishment of dictatorship and of secularist reforms resulting in both cases in totalitarian nationalist and quasi westernised states and the personality cult of the leader The legacy of both was a chasm between the elite and the masses and provided the seeding of an Islamic mass movement it has spurred fertile and often heated discussions both within and between a diverse range of disciplines Yet atheism and the New Atheism are by no means co extensive Interesting though it indeed is the New Atheism is a single historically and culturally specific manifestation of positive atheism the that there is are no God s which is itself but one form of a far deeper broader and more significant global phenomenon The Oxford Handbook of Atheism is a pioneering edited volume exploring atheism understood in the broad sense of an absence of belief in the existence of a God or gods in all the richness and diversity of its historical and contemporary expressions Bringing together an international team of established and emerging scholars it probes the varied manifestations and implications of unbelief from an array of disciplinary perspectives philosophy history sociology anthropology demography psychology natural sciences gender and sexuality studies literary criticism film studies musicology and in a range of global contexts Western Europe North America post communist Europe the Islamic world Japan India Both surveying and synthesizing previous work and presenting the major fruits of innovative recent research the handbook is set to be a landmark text for the study of atheism
