Sadler Henry Crabb Robinson, 1869 The Sadler's Wells Ballet, 1931-1956 Royal Opera House, 1956 Authority and Displacement in the English-Speaking World (Volume I) Florence Labaune-Demeule, 2016-01-14 Whether one thinks of the modern world or of more remote times both seem to have been affected if not moulded by the interaction between the concepts of authority and displacement Indeed political and social

sources of authority have often been the causes of major geographical displacements as can be illustrated by the numerous waves of migration which have been observed in the past and which are still present today such as the transportation of slaves from African to American coasts in colonial times. If displacement can often be understood as spatial displacement it can also be synonymous with psychological, social and even aesthetic displacement for instance through different artistic means or through the use of stylistic discursive devices. Displacement also entails displacement, dislocation as well as dislocation or chaos. This suggests that the etymological meaning of the term authority, auctoritas, has to be highlighted thus referring to the author of a particular work and to the different manifestations of the authorial persona in a work of art. This collection of essays in two volumes examines the relationships between the concepts of authority and displacement in the English speaking world without restricting the analysis to a particular area or to the field of literature. Some essays do indeed deal with literature from different spatial areas and temporal eras while others look into these concepts from a more cultural or aesthetic point of view. Volume One, Exploring Europe from Europe, includes essays on Shakespeare's Measure for Measure, John Ross's Second Exploration Voyage, Thomas Hardy's Jude the Obscure, in addition to investigations of Rose Tremain's novels Disguise by Hugo Hamilton and the cinematic adaptation of Conrad's Almayer's Folly by Chantal Akerman. The volume concludes with a study of two novels by the Anglo-Sudanese writer Jamal Mahjoub: The polemics of Ageing as reflected in Literatures. Essays on Ageing in Literature and Interviews with Vikram Chandra, James Halperin, Doris Lessing, Zadie Smith and Terri-ann White. El envejecimiento no es sólo un proceso biológico sino también social, económico, psicológico, político y cultural. Las representaciones literarias del envejecimiento contribuyen a entender aspectos como el miedo a la decrepitud, la pérdida de creatividad o la muerte, las relaciones intergeneracionales y la sostenibilidad de la calidad de vida. En el libro escritores y académicos discuten temas de vital importancia para nuestras sociedades actuales con artículos y entrevistas que reflejan actitudes positivas hacia el proceso en que todos estamos implicados. The Gospel according to st. Matthew, with notes, by M.F. Sadler (1882), Dancing Times (1998), King of All Balloons (Mark Davies, 2015-11-15). The fascinating world of the first Englishman to fly is a true homage to our national desire to reach for the skies. The Windsor Magazine (1910), Todd Co, KY - Family Hist (1995-06-15), Handbook of Attachment-Based Interventions (Howard Steele, Miriam Steele, 2019-09-10). The first volume to showcase science-based interventions that have been demonstrated effective in promoting attachment security, this is a vital reference and clinical guide for practitioners. With a major focus on strengthening caregiving relationships in early childhood, the Handbook also includes interventions for school-age children at risk, adolescents and couples, with an emphasis on father involvement in parenting. A consistent theme is working with children and parents who have been exposed to trauma and other adverse circumstances. Leading authorities describe how their respective approaches are informed by attachment theory and research, how sessions are structured and conducted, special techniques used, such as video feedback, the empirical evidence base for the approach and training.
