Sadness At Leaving:

Sadness at Leaving Erje Ayden, 1989 Pulp fiction writer Erje Ayden's coy novel is his most autobiographical work if one accepts his claim that he worked as a spy for the Turkish government in the 1960s and 70s I wonder if it is lustful A tank in its dreams What do airplanes think When left alone We did not seek happiness We invented sadness Were we not of this world Orhan Veli epigram to Sadness at Leaving During the 1960s and 70s Turkish born Erje Ayden served as house pulp fiction writer to the New York School of painters and poets Friend and sometime bodyguard to the artist Willem De Kooning Ayden self published 7 pop novels written in rapid amphetamine bursts in borrowed apartments and rooming houses Sadness at Leaving re published by Semiotext e in 1998 is Ayden's most autobiographical work if one accepts as he claims that he worked as a spy for the Turkish government throughout those years East Berlin 1959 Following the erection of the Berlin wall special agent Carl Halman is assigned by East German intelligence to move to New York where he'll sleep as a writer until he is called Using the code name April 23 Carl successfully infiltrates the uptown downtown literary world in 1950s New York He edits a magazine follows the Knicks and marries Melinda the socialite wife of best selling jock novelist Hubert Cleaver Ayden's hilarious Norman Mailer pastiche Through Carl's eyes we see New York City change from an outpost of Europe to the new capital of an anarchistic post ideological world But then when Carl least expects it he's called Grief as a Spiritual Practice Cathérine Denys, 2021-11-03 What happens when the love of your life dies after a quarter of a century of an ever growing ever expanding ever changing life together Instead of plunging into the big black hole everybody talks about Cathérine Denys experienced something totally unexpected that showed her how to live with the grief Cathérine whose greatest desire has been to live the most conscious life possible shares that principle in an inspiring teaching memoir After revealing how she nearly bypassed the encounter that turned her life around she shares insight into the unfolding of a relationship as she traveled between Antwerp and Amsterdam experienced life in a kundalini yoga ashram and finally moved to Texas When her husband was diagnosed with an aggressive cancer that eventually took his life Cathérine details how she navigated amid her grief and used it as the perfect circumstance to take the next step for personal growth and change while at the same time actualizing a joyful existence Included are exercises and tools to help others handle their own story of loss and mourning In this poignant narrative a woman explores a conscious way of grieving the death of a loved one while sharing wisdom and practical tips to help anyone on the same journey Beauty and Sadness André Alexis, 2010 Award winning novelist and critic André Alexis explores worlds with names such as Henry James Maupassant and Kawabata trying like any traveller to faithfully convey what he sees and feels in those places while giving a convincing portrait of himself At the same time Beauty and Sadness is an autobiography Alexis's intent is to give a sense of what it is like to live ecstatically through literature what it is like to read Tolstoy and feel that The Death of Ivan Ilych for instance is connected to the land of his birth Trinidad as intimately as it is to his home Canada In the final piece of the book entitled Water Alexis gives the reader an intimate sense of what it has been like to live as a writer these last twenty years while practicing an art form fiction literature that he contends is in decline In the author s own words Beauty and sadness is where world and words meet Solving
