Shane The Critical Edition:

Shane Jack Schaefer, 1984-01-01 A reformed gunfighter trying to escape his past befriends a family of homesteaders whom a local rancher is trying to drive out Gunfighter Nation Richard Slotkin, 1998 Examines the ways in which the frontier myth influences American culture and politics drawing on fiction western films and political writing Fifty Years After The Big Sky William E. Farr, William W. Bevis, 2001 Writers historians and public intellectuals from James Welch and Mary Clearman Blew to Dan Flores William W Bevis and Daniel Kemmis explore A B Guthrie s life and legacy in Fifty Years after The Big Sky New Perspectives on the Fiction and Films of A B Guthrie Jr Best known for his novels The Big Sky and The Way West and as the author of the screenplay for the movie classic Shane A B Guthrie is a much loved but under studied Montana author There has been almost no serious study of Guthrie s work until now This wide ranging anthology examines this beloved western author in multiple contexts Essays examine Guthrie s relationship with the movie industry how the Cold War influenced Guthrie s work how people in his hometown of Choteau Montana and others close to him remember the man and how the myths that lie at the core of Guthrie s fiction haunt today s Montanans Cowboy Classics Kirsten Day, 2016-05-31 Cowboy Classics looks at the surprisingly close connection between Western film and Greek and Roman epic each of which focuses on a mythic historical period from the past where our societal notions of what constitutes heroism masculinity and honor were first forged Outlaw Heroes as Liminal Figures of Film and Television Rebecca A. Umland, 2016-04-20 Unlike such romanticized renegades as Robin Hood and Jesse James there is another kind of outlaw hero one who lives between the law and his own personal code In times of crisis when the law proves inadequate the liminal outlaw negotiates between the social imperatives of the community and his innate sense of right and wrong While society requires his services he necessarily remains apart from it in self preservation The modern outlaw hero of film and television is rooted in the knight errant whose violent exploits are tempered by his solitude and devotion to a higher ideal In Hollywood classics such as Casablanca 1942 and Shane 1953 and in early series like The Lone Ranger 1949 1957 and Have Gun Will Travel 1957 1963 the outlaw hero reconciles for audiences the conflicting impulses of individual freedom versus serving a larger cause Urban westerns like the Dirty Harry and Death Wish franchises as well as iconic action figures like Rambo and Batman testify to his enduring popularity This book examines the liminal hero s origins in medieval romance his survival in the mythology of the Hollywood western and his incarnations in the urban western and modern action film The Films of Clint Eastwood Matt Wanat, Leonard Engel, 2018-05-15 The indefatigable Clint Eastwood the great old man of American film is still controversial after all these years Many of the critical essays in this collection focus on Eastwood s 2014 American Sniper a particularly controversial film and a devastating personal account of the horrors of war Additional essays within the collection address his films that deserve more recognition than they have received to date The chapters vary by topic and identify themes ranging from aging race and gender to uses of Western conventions and myth to the subtleties of quieter themes and stylistic choices in Eastwood's body of cinematic work. As a collection, these essays show that none of these themes account for Eastwood's entire vision, which is multifaceted and often contradictory, dramatizing complex issues in powerful character-driven narratives. A Literary History of the American West Western Literature Association (U.S.), 1987. Literary histories, of course, do not have a reason for being unless there exists the literature itself. This volume, perhaps more than others of its kind, is an expression of appreciation for the talented and dedicated literary artists who ignored the odds, avoided temptations to write for popularity or prestige, and chose to write honestly about the American West, believing that experiences long known to be of historical importance are also experiences that need and deserve a literature of importance.

Bible and Cinema: Fifty Key Films Adele Reinhartz, 2013. Bible and Cinema: Fifty Key Films introduces a wide range of those movies among the most important, critically acclaimed, and highest-grossing films of all time, which have drawn inspiration either directly or indirectly from the Bible. Giant Marilyn Ann Moss, 2015-08-04. Marilyn Ann Moss's Giant examines the life of one of the most influential directors to work in Hollywood from the 1930s to the 1960s: George Stevens. He directed such popular and significant films as Shane, Giant, A Place in the Sun, and The Diary of Anne Frank. He was the first to pair Katharine Hepburn and Spencer Tracy on film in Woman of the Year. Through the study of Stevens's life and his production history, Moss also presents a glimpse of the workings of the classic Hollywood studio system in its glory days. Moss documents Stevens's role as a powerful director who often had to battle the heads of major studios to get his films made his way. She traces the four decades Stevens was a major Hollywood player and icon, from his earliest days at the Hal Roach Studios, where he learned to be a cameraman, writer, and director for Laurel and Hardy, features, up to when his films made millions at the box office and were graced by actors such as Elizabeth Taylor, James Dean, Alan Ladd, and Montgomery Clift.
